YOUR PROBLEMS
by Ann Landers

'Declare Your Neutrality . . .'

Dear Ann Landers: How should a 14-year-old girl and a 17-year-old boy act when their parents are being divorced?

Mom and dad are trying their darndest to get us to take sides. My sister and I are fed up listening to them. Dad says mom is a cold fish, that he got tired of pecks on the cheek and a turned back. Mom says dad ran around with young girls as well as with her married friends and that she couldn't give him any love after that.

I will be in college in six months and my sister will be in boarding school. Being away will help a lot, but we need to know how to get off the spot now. Any suggestions? — PRODUCTS OF PFF-TT

Dear Products: Children of divorce have a tough time without being pulled and hauled from both sides.

Declare your neutrality and tell them you don't want to hear anymore propaganda from either one of them. You may have to say it three or four times but after a while they'll know you mean business and the (Continued on Page 10)
