

SYMPHONY PLANS . . . Dr. George C. Andersen, Beach Cities Symphony Assn. president, discusses the musical tea which will launch the association's 15th season with Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Glenn Grossman, chairman of the board of directors. The event will be held at the Andersen home Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m.

Musical Tea to Open Symphony's 15th Year

A musical tea will mark the opening of the Beach Cities Symphony Association's 15th season Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George C. Andersen. Attending will be members and patrons of the association and leading members of the community.

Guests will meet the musical director of the orchestra, Louis Palange and his wife, and be presented a resume of the coming season by Mrs. Glenn Grossman, chairman of the board of directors. Four symphonic concerts are scheduled.

A string trio will entertain guests with classical and light comedy selections on the patio. Mrs. Walter Anderson and Mrs. Kenneth Hunter are in charge of table arrangements.

The first appearance of the symphony will be Nov. 6 at 8:15 p.m. in the Mira Costa High School Auditorium in a youth concert.

Information concerning symphony participation or association membership is available by contacting Mrs. T. L. Jefferson, orchestra manager, at FR 5-2670.

TUITION COMPARISONS
During the past four years average tuition costs at U. S. private colleges went up $206 while tuition costs in public colleges increased just $49.

Bank Opens Office for Auto Plan

Crocker-Citizens National Bank has announced plans for the location of a new office designed to serve the financing needs of automobile and trailer dealers.

The new office has been opened near the Hawthorne-Artesia Branch of the bank at 17522 Hawthorne Ave., and will serve as permanent quarters for the new financing plan.

The service area includes the Westchester-Inglewood area and extends south to the San Pedro area. The eastern boundary is the Harbor Freeway.

Alex J. Schultz, manager of the office, said it will serve as headquarters for the new financing service which has been handled through branches of the bank. Jim Belmos has been named assistant manager of the office.
