

... Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 29) and now I'm writing to you for a solution. We have two children who get up at 7:30 a.m. and go to school. I have to fix them breakfast or they will go without it. When I give my husband supper at 3:00 a.m. it breaks up my whole night's sleep and I drag around the next day half dead. Is this fair?

He used to have a day job but he makes more money as a bartender. For the first time we are able to pay our bills and save something. Please give me an answer to this one.—BRICK WALL.

Dear Brick: If your husband were coming home at 3:00 a.m. after a night of girl-chasing I would say let him fix his own supper. But this man is working on a job. You seem delighted with the additional income but you are unwilling to make any personal sacrifices. Is this fair?

Adjust your life to suit his "crazy hours" even if it means napping during the daytime. Your husband is entitled to a hot supper when he comes home from work and you should be happy to fix it.

Dear Ann Landers: I would like your advice on how to deal with a problem shared by dozens of secretaries. The telephone manners of the bosses' wives are appalling.

They call the office several times a day and start off with: "Is HE there?" "Where is HE?" or "Let me talk to HIM." Although they have seen us hundreds of times, they never call us by name or say, "How are you today?" It's almost as if we are too stupid or too insignificant to bother with. Never is there a "Please," or a "Thank you."

How do you recommend we deal with such wives?—HIRED HELP.

Dear Help: Nothing accentuates rudeness like courtesy. Put extra syrup and honey in your voice and pour it on, Sister.

When Mrs. Gotrocks calls and barks "Is HE there?" reply with, "Good morning,

To assure a successful and gala party, there are always many busy people working on an event such as the Punch Bunch, among whom are Mmes. William Roberts of Portuguese Bend and Mrs. Richard Kincaid of Palos Verdes Estates, co-chairman of the Fashion Show.

Other committee chairmen are Mmes. James Yurk of San Pedro, decorations; Donald Clay of Manhattan Beach, reservations; Thomas Mills of Portuguese Bend, door prizes; Daniel McDonald of Manhattan Beach, hostesses; Frank Ogden of San Pedro, prizes; Gabriel Catalogne of Torrance, fashions; James Johnson of San Pedro, favors; Otto Willett of Redondo Beach, programs; and John F. Duston, Jr. of Palos Verdes Estates, publicity.

Mrs. G.R., Of course Mr. G.R. is here. I'll put him right through. Just one moment, please."

Skater Turns Choreographer For Ice Follies

Fran Claudet, the world's finest skating choreographer, has had a long association with the Shipstads & Johnson Ice Follies, now showing at the Long Beach Arena. Fran was a featured skater with the show, then turned to originating the intricate skating routines that have made Ice Follies the most successful entertainment vehicle in history.

Fran, born in Victoria, B.C., started skating at the age of 10 in Ottawa, and wound up teaming with Toronto's Osborne Colson to capture the Canadian and North American pair championships. She also was extremely adept at singles, winning, among other titles, the Ottawa championship.

Fran first experiments with new steps on her living room floor, then tries them on the ice surface. From here it takes hours of patient rehearsals until they come out letter-perfect.

Birthday Event

Enjoying dinner recently at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lindmeyr of Hollywood Riviera, who gave a party in celebration of Mrs. Lindmeyr's birthday anniversary. Guests included Mrs. Anita Hauser, Ruth Boswell and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindmeyr.

For Childrens Hospital

Portuguese Bend National Horse Show on Sept. 26-27

Peninsula Committee of the Children's Hospital announces its 1964 Portuguese Bend National Horse show will be held this year on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 26 and 27, at the Portuguese Bend Riding Club on Narcissa Dr., in Portuguese Bend. All proceeds will go to the building fund of the Los Angeles Childrens Hospital.

Mrs. Stanton Swafford is serving as general chairman with Mrs. Evan K. Shaw and Mrs. Albert W. Day, co-chairmen. Mrs. Harry H. Wetzel, Jr. is president of the show committee.

Because of additional spectator and exhibitor facilities, the show is expected to draw more than last year's 20,000 spectators and more than 700 entries.

Because stakes have been raised for the Sunday show, the finest horses in the Pacific Southwest are entered.

Allen Ross, manager of the Grand National Horse Show at the Cow Palace and other large shows on the west coast, will be manager and announcer.

Judges for the show will be Dr. Robert C. Robinson, Woodside, Col. Alex Sysin, Stanford; Harold Fikstad, Oceanside.

The all-junior show on Saturday will have four medal classes among the 20 classes competing. Winners will be eligible to enter the competitions for the United States championships at the Cow Palace and Madison Square Gardens.

The open show on Sunday will have eleven stake classes competing along with classes of hunters and jumpers.

Featured entertainment on Saturday will be jumping and hunt riding by children of the Rolling Hills Pony Club. The 35-member club, first of its kind in Southern California, was founded in 1957.

The Metlox Poppy Trail Carriage collection will be shown as Sunday's special event, including Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt Sr.'s early 1900 Brougham and others.

Children under the age of 12 are invited to decorate their horses using an "Early California" theme for a parade during the noon intermission on Sunday.

Climaxing the two-day event will be the supper dance on Saturday evening in the courtyard at the Riding Club, honoring exhibitors. Mrs. George Chacksfield is serving as party chairman with Mrs. E. B. Hall as her co-chairman.

Under a roof thick with hanging pinatas, a buffet supper will be served from tables decorated with gold epergnes of fruit and artificial doves.

Mrs. George Chacksfield, chairman of La Seranta, her committee and their husbands will don mantillas, sombreros, ruffles and sashes to add to the picturesque scene.

Assisting Mrs. Chacksfield and Mrs. Hall are Mmes. Burton W. Graham, Ernest W. Hahn, Paul E. Moran, George T. Scharfenberger and Thomas Dudleyson.

Moffitts Host

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moffitt entertained at dinner Saturday evening at their home, 2714 Arlington Ave., honoring Mrs. Harold Halstead of Venice, who was celebrating a birthday. Other guests were Mr. Halstead, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warner, Van Nuys, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Halstead of Lakewood.

A _____ in every pot!

- (a) green elephant
- (b) peach
- (c) chicken

If you guessed (c) you're only half right. The correct answer is (c) and (b). That's right, chicken and canned cling peaches — hot and fragrant. A golden garnish of hot cling peach halves makes the perfect taste contrast with chicken. Bake them, broil them, heat them with butter in a sauce pan. You just can't go wrong when you serve cling peaches with chicken. CLING PEACH ADVISORY BOARD

PRESENTING Cadillac FOR 1965

SO NEW! SO RIGHT! SO OBVIOUSLY CADILLAC!

The 1965 Cadillac is the most dramatically new Cadillac in sixteen years; new from chassis to rooftop and new from start to stop. Its remarkable styling—elegant, majestic and impressive as never before—establishes it instantly as an all-time Cadillac great. And not only is it an inspiration to look at—it is a revelation to drive! The marvelous responsiveness of Turbo Hydra-Matic is now standard on all eleven models. A new concept of frame and suspension gives the car incredible steadiness and levelness of ride—even under the severest conditions of cornering and handling. And there is quiet—quiet beyond anything you imagined possible in a motor car! Cadillac's new and more spacious interiors are marvelously rich and luxurious—and include such personal options as an exclusive tilt and telescope steering wheel. Cadillac owner or Cadillac admirer—you owe yourself a journey at the wheel without delay.

You will know at once that this is—in every way—the new Standard of the World!
