Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Glawson and Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Quillen were special guests of the pack at the meeting. Mrs. Harold Burgener was the subject of the "This Was Your Life" presentation. She was given a plaque for service to the community.

A la Carte is a French phrase meaning according to the bill of fare or menu. Which probably accounts for the fact that you can seldom order a change in the vegetable or dessert indicated. If something in the entire meal is changed at the customer's request, it would no longer be "a la carte."

ODD SHARK
The skeleton of a six-foot bramble shark, a rarity in Southern California waters, is now in the Los Angeles County Museum collections. One of two recorded in this area, the shark gets its name from the short bristles which cover its hide. Relatively harmless, this member of the dog fish family lives in deep waters and is thought to grow to eight feet in length.
