Marymount to Schedule Mass Media Course

A series of 16 lectures examining the influences of television, advertising, the newspaper, radio, and the motion picture, will be offered by Marymount College's Extension Division this semester on the Palos Verdes college campus.

The course, titled Communication Arts and the Mass Media, will be presented by Ken Carreiro, lecturer at the college. A former newspaperman and writer, Carreiro is also the public relations director at Loyola University.

Carson Fire Station Plans Now in Works

Plans for a new fire station in the Carson area to replace quarters at 404 E. Carson St. are being prepared by Clyde Grimes, architect, according to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

The new structure which will serve as battalion headquarters for the County Fire Department will house Engine Company 36 and Rescue Unit 36. County Fire Chief Keith Klinger is determining a site for the new station.

Montgomery Welcomes Two Exchange Students

Dario Principe and Gorge Berti, exchange students now attending Bishop Montgomery High School, are the first foreign students to participate in Montgomery's new exchange program.

Principe, 16, is from Rome, Italy, and is now residing with the Stone family in Rolling Hills Estates. He will take classes in U.S. History civics, English, religion, and physical education.

Berti, 17, is from Cordoba, Argentina, and is residing with the David Harneys of Torrance. He will study U. S. history, civics, English, and other junior and senior courses.

Both boys had to score well on a competitive written and oral scholarship examination in order to qualify for the exchange program. Arrangements for the trips were made by the Catholic Welfare Conference.

Upon his return to Italy, Principe plans to continue his studies in engineering. Berti also hopes to become an electronics engineer.

Both boys note the major difference between American and their own schools is that teachers, not students, change classes in their homelands.
