THRU SUNDAY . . . you can see and enjoy the magnificent Shipstad & Johnson's Ice Follies in the Long Beach Arena. Large cast includes skater Diane Morris.

Front Row, Center

Something for everyone seems to be on tap for the fall-winter season in the Southland.

Eddie Smith and his Dixieland Band are still at Marineland Restaurant but they leave Sunday, and Tuesday the Hi Hats and their Harmonicas will be on tap . . . Folk singer David-Troy hosts fun-filled Hootenanny and contests Sunday evenings for amateurs at the Mon Ami in Orange . . .

The delightful "H.M.S. Pinafore" continues at Huntington-Hartford in Hollywood, with Gertrude Berg opening October 5 in "Dear Me, the Sky is Falling" . . . "Show Boat" closes this weekend at Melodyland with "High Button Shoes" opening Tuesday . . .

Magnificent ballet comes to the Shrine October 23 with the Leningrad-Kirov Ballet Company there for 2 weeks . . . and the Long Beach Civic Light Opera returns to the Arena the middle of October with one of the most delightful musicals, "The King and I."

NEW TECHNIQUE is what makes possible the cinematic presentation of the actual stage version of Richard Burton's "Hamlet." According to all reports there is a real feeling of "being there" in seeing and hearing the Electronovision production which is showing Wednesday and Thursday ONLY at Rolling Hills Theatre and numerous theaters in the Southland.

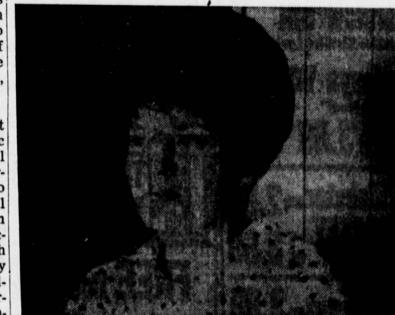

YOUNG CROWD . . . has its own "corner" in Shakey's Pizza Palace and genial Marvin Stock is there to serve them.

AUTHOR . . . director and one-time actor John Pimley will direct his own play at the Chapel Theatre, back "Heavenly Weekend" at of the Indian Village, starting Oct. 9.

KING . . . George Wallace sings role of King Arthur in "Camelot" musical coming to Orpheum Theatre in Los Angeles on Monday.

ATTRACTIVE "BOSS" . . . Millie Riera, owner of the Seafront Grotto on the Esplanade, keeps a close eye on service and food at the famed restaurant.

Over the TABLE TOPS

September means back to school time for the youngsters. For wife, mother, sister or grandmother, September signals the beginning of fall fashion shows.

Last Saturday the attractive and popular PLUSH HORSE RESTAURANT on Pacific Coast Highway in Riviera Village inaugurated the first of their fall fashion show luncheons to be presented each Saturday.

Richard Burg, manager of The Plush Horse Restaurant for John and Chris Scooby, together with Betty Wallace of the restaurant's Gift Shop, arranged an excellent show with numerous door prizes from merchants in the area of the new Riviera Village Association.

Noticed at nearby tables enjoying the excellent buffet luncheon and the fashions were Mmes. Al Hinz, Guy Antrim, James Gavin, Lillian Throne, George Graziada, models parade while lunching in the dining room and, weather permitting, around the pool. Incidentally, at The Mariner on Thursday, Friday and Saturday those zany and entertaining Canadian Beadles are returning by popular demand, so get on over and dance!

DELICIOUS is just another name for the unique Eastern Polish Sausage pizza as prepared and served at Shakey's Pizza Parlor. Stopped in the other evening for one at the Pizza Parlor on Torrance Boulevard and stayed for a second . . . which for me is a rarity indeed! They are SO good, especially on cool evenings.
