

Organ Concert Benefit For Retarded Planned

Don Lee Ellis, internationally known organist, will appear in a special benefit concert for the Southwest Association for Mentally Retarded Children Sunday, Oct. 18, at 3 p.m.

The concert, to be given at Narbonne High School auditorium, is sponsored by the El Camino Kiwanis Club. Tickets for the concert are available for a $1.50 donation.

Included on the program are popular and classical selections and some special novelty numbers to be produced by the Hammond Organ Studios of the South Bay. Ellis, who just returned from three years in Europe, is a Hammond Showcase Artist. Tickets for the concert may be reserved by calling DA 6-1131 or OR 0-6133.

Charity Drive Slated Oct. 26 In Area Schools

Torrance school children will dip deep into their pockets for coins to chalk up to charity later this month.

The United Crusade will be conducted in the schools the week of Oct. 26, according to Dr. Louis Kaplan, assistant superintendent, special services.

The fund drive is a joint campaign of the United Way and American Red Cross. There will be no Red Cross Drive in the Spring, Kaplan said.

LECTURES . . . John Spencer, local businessman and president of the Rug Cleaners Institute of California, conducted seminars for attending at the 10th annual convention of the institute held in Fresno the latter part of September.

Great Books Group Slates First Meeting

The first meeting of a Great Books Discussion Group will be held tonight, at 8 p.m., in the Security First National Bank Building, 17124 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale. James Alcorn of Torrance will serve as moderator.

The Declaration of Independence will be read and discussed at the first meeting. Copies will be available to persons attending. Books containing selections to be read during the year may be obtained at the meeting, also.

The group will meet twice a month and is without membership fees. Further information is available by telephoning DA 6-2724.
