Barbara Snyder Becomes Bride of Jose A. Garcia

At home in Inglewood, following a honeymoon in Carmel and San Francisco, are Mr. and Mrs. Jose A. Garcia, who were married recently in the library at the home of Judge John A. Shidler in Hollywood Riviera. The bride is the former Barbara Ann Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richmond B. Snyder, 3536 Newton St., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Garcia of Inglewood.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace over satin street-length dress. It was fashioned with a scalloped neckline, long tapered sleeves and caught up in the back in apron effect. A pearl tiara, centered by a white rose, held her short veil and she carried a colonial bou-quet of white carnations tied with blue ribbons.

Miss Esther Garcia, in yellow silk, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Ruth Olausen, in blue organza. Faye Muraski in blue lace and Jan Eidsath in silver organza.

Mr. Nelson Garcia served as best man. Judge John Shidler conducted the double ring ceremony.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with 70 local and out-of-town guests attending. Miss Phyllis Muraski was in charge of the guest book.

The bride attended WALTERIA Elementary and was graduated from South High.

Her husband, a native of Havana, Cuba, has a Cuban Military education, serving with the Cuban Air Force.

Newlywed P. Gremillions At Home in Louisiana

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gremillion, who were married recently in an afternoon ceremony at the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo, are now at home in Baker, La. where Mr. Gremillion accepted a job with a construction company. Mrs. Gremillion is the former Janice Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wood, 17019 Atkinson Ave., Torrance.

Rev. P. Cox officiated at the double ring marriage service for which the bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a scalloped neckline, long pointed sleeves and a full unpressed pleated skirt. Her dainty pearl crown held the silk illusion veil. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids, roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Cheryl Wiser, in pink taffeta and carrying pale pink carnations, was the maid of honor. Bruce Perry stood as best man.

The bride is a graduate of North High school. Her husband recently completed four years of service with the United States Marine Corps.

The couple spent a honeymoon in Catalina before leaving for Louisiana.

Local Couple Married In Las Vegas Ceremony

Among the late summer brides was Miss Nancy Ann Shupe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden, 18310 Prairie Ave., Torrance, who was married to Gaylord D. Wasson. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Starr, 21237 Ocean Ave., Torrance.

The wedding was solemnized Aug. 15 in the Little Church of the West in Las Vegas with the Rev. Thomas Daly officiating.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a white lace and organza waltz length dress fashioned with a lace bodice, scoop neckline and long sleeves. A coronet, designed and made by the bride, held her illusion veil and she carried white roses and valley lilies. She was given in marriage by her brother, Jerry Shupe.

Miss Andrea Koon, wearing a yellow lace and chiffon shift, and carrying white roses, was the maid of honor.

Costa-Fitzer Marriage Solemnized at Seaside

In a candlelight double-ring ceremony at the Seaside Community Church, Aug. 29, Miss Carleen Jantette Costa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Costa, 3428 W. 229th St., Torrance, exchanged her marriage vows with Douglas Robert Fitzer. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fitzer, 1901 241st St., Lomita.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace.

Features of the gown were a square scalloped neckline, elbow sleeves, a bouffant skirt with a short train. A crown of teardrop and seed pearls held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis encircling white orchids.

Miss Roberta Birdsall was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Gayle Tomlinson, Misses Marcella Lucero and Kay Rentchler. All were attired in blue taffeta and carried blue carnation cascades.

Dean Fitzer was his brother's best man and ushers were Ronnie Michael, Ted Allen Costa and James Lorenz.

Rev. Francis Rath officiated at the marriage as Mrs. Roberta Parker played the nuptial music. Mrs. Lilly Stewart sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception and buffet supper followed at the home of the bride's parents. The four-tiered wedding cake was baked and decorated by the bride's mother. Assisting in serving were Mrs. R. Reamer and Mrs. N. Tenerini. Miss Joanne Fitzer was at the guest book. The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Carmel and San Francisco and are at home at 5240 Pendleton, South Gate.

The bride was graduated from South High in 1964. Her husband, a Narbonne graduate, attended Harbor College.
