LEONARDS

25405 CRENSHAW BLVD.
(Corner Crenshaw Blvd. and Pacific Coast Hwy.) Torrance

FIRST UNIT . . . Construction of the first classroom unit at the new Seventh-day Adventist South Bay Junior Academy has been completed, according to Albion Hoff, chairman of the building committee. The new school is located on a 10-acre site at 4400 W. Del Amo Blvd., in Torrance.

Professor on Seminar Slate

Dr. Kenton L. Anderson, assistant professor of Business and Industrial Management, will be among the nine faculty members of University of Southern California's School of Business Administration to contribute to a seminar program which will precede the school's annual alumni luncheon Tuesday at the Ambassador.

Dr. Anderson resides at Pacific Coast Hwy.

Board Approves Avalon Project

Improvement of Avalon Boulevard between 182nd and 184th streets and between 186th and 189th streets has been authorized according to the Board of Supervisors.

The completed project will improve area drainage, reduce maintenance costs and generally add to the operational efficiency.

Alan R. Evans, seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Evans of 22713 Van Deen Ave., is participating in a training operation called "Exercise Union Square" off the coast of California while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea.

Doctor to Attend

Dr. Don Cortrum will attend the 41st Medical Society convention Nov. 6 through 8 at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel.
