Frederick Coburn, Bride To Make Home in Iowa

A wedding of interest here was solemnized on Aug. 22 at the First Baptist Church in Bear Valley when Miss Jacqui Lynne MacGregor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William MacGregor of Big Bear City became the bride of Frederick Hale Coburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Coburn of Torrance. Officiating at the marriage was Rev. Ted K. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Bear Valley. The Choralettes from Big Bear High School sang the wedding songs accompanied by Mrs. Wilma Drake, organist. Attired in a floor length gown of white peau de sole the bride entered the church on the arm of her father. The bodice of her dress and the headpiece, which held her veil were both embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a pearl encrusted bouquet of white carnations. Attending the bride was Miss Gerry Turner, maid of honor; Misses Linda Jacobson and Virginia Lockner, bridesmaids. They wore lavender blue silk shantung gowns and carried carnations.

George Wiley was candle lighter. Flower girl, Barbara Lucas, wore a white taffeta gown with lavender-blue sash. Richard Coburn stood as his brother's best man. Ushers were John MacGregor, brother of the bride, and Bill Coburn, brother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Coburn is a 1963 graduate of Big Bear High School. Last year she attended UCLA Dental School. Her husband is a 1962 graduate of Big Bear High. After a San Francisco honeymoon, the couple left for Davenport, Iowa, where Mr. Coburn will attend Palmer School of Chiropractic. At District Meet Attending a Marina District Council dinner and workshop held at the Westley Junior Woman's Club Monday evening were Mrs. Gordon Gmur, member of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and district mental health chairman; Mrs. Ronald Hoover, president; and Mrs. L. G. Pulliam, senior coordinator. Mrs. Robert Raney, Marina District president, conducted the meeting.

Bolerjacks Melissa Matheny Weds Honored on C. Van Blankenstein Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Bolerjack, 2506 Ridgeland Rd., who celebrated their fifty-third wedding anniversary on Oct. 18, are guests of honor at an open house given by their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Beezley. The couple make their home with their daughter.

The home was beautifully decorated with gold and white floral arrangements and a gold and white wedding anniversary cake centered the dining table from which refreshments were served. A large number of friends called to congratulate the couple during the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Bolerjack also received several telephone calls from friends and relatives in Missouri, their former home.

The celebrants were married on Oct. 18, 1911, in Willow Springs, Mo. For many years, Mr. Bolerjack served on the Springfield, Mo., police force.

In 1911, they came to California to make their home. Mr. Bolerjack was employed by Los Angeles County until his retirement 13 years ago.

Senior Club Has Socials

Hollywood Riviera Senior Citizens enjoyed a covered dish supper Saturday evening from 5 to 11 p.m. at the clubhouse at El Retiro Park.

On Oct. 3, the club went to the Plush Horse for a luncheon made possible by the Hollywood Riviera merchants, who also donated the door prizes.

This club meets every Friday at 12 noon for bridge and canasta at El Retiro Park. Coffee and cookies are served. All members are urged to attend and to bring their friends. New members are invited to join the club and may have more information by calling Mrs. Leona Arq, president.

For goodness sake!

You mean you haven't tried serving chicken with hot, fragrant canned cling peaches yet? Next time you're broiling chicken, place it on foil. Then, 10 minutes before it's done, place drained cling peach halves around it, and broil till each peach is tinged with brown. Try it tonight, for goodness sake! CLING PEACH ADVISORY BOARD
