

MRS. ROBERT WILLIAM CLARK
... On Honeymoon
(Portrait by Seeman)

O'Farrell-Clark Names Linked in Nuptial Rite

First Lutheran Church was the scene of a two o'clock wedding on Saturday, Oct. 10, when Miss Patricia O'Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. O'Farrell, 24712 Lakme Ave., became the bride of Robert William Clark of Tucson, Ariz. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clark of Tucson.

Nieces of the bride, Dorothy and Clellen Woods, in blue brocade dresses, lighted the candles for the ceremony as Bernard Verkaaik, organist, played the traditional wedding music.

Bridal entourage consisted of Miss Helen Lee, maid of honor; Miss Carol Wilson and Mrs. Tony Baresford, bridesmaids. They wore blue brocade gowns and carried white chrysanthemums tied with blue ribbons.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. Her ankle-length wedding gown was of silk organza and Chantilly lace. The Chantilly lace, which formed a square scalloped neckline also enhanced the top of the long, pointed sleeves and formed appliques on the bouffant skirt. Her silk illusion veil was held by a pearl petal tiara and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Best man duties were performed by Michael Stoffel. Ushers were Michael Clark and Lewis Drake.

Rev. Philip Hiller officiated at the vow exchange, after which the 150 guests greeted the newlyweds at a church reception. Miss Dawn Woods registered the guests. Members of the wedding party and family members were entertained at a buffet supper at the home of Dr. Richard Woods in Lomita.

The couple is now on a honeymoon trip to Sturgeon Bay, Wisc., Milwaukee and Chicago.

The bride is a graduate of Banning High School and Long Beach State College. During the summer, she has worked for the Torrance School District, for which her father is audio-visual repairman.

Her husband attended school in Wisconsin, was graduated from Flowing Wells High School in Tucson, Ariz., and attended the University of Arizona.

Special guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, his two brothers, Tom and William Clark of Tucson and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary O'Farrell of Wilmington.

Costas Feted By Neighbors

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Costa, 1532 W. 219th St., recent residents of 3428 229th St., were guests of honor at a housewarming given by their former neighbors last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMahon in Hermosa Beach, also former 229th Street residents.

The group enjoyed a pot luck supper and the Costas were presented with a gift for their new home. Attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Evan Terry, Paul Bowman, Lee Cummings, Frank Ashford, Robert McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. B. Slusher were unable to attend.

Reciprocity Event to Be Held by DAR

Six Southern California Chapters of the DAR will sponsor a reciprocity luncheon in the Riviera Country Club, Pacific Palisades.

El Redondo Chapter of the South Bay, headed by Mrs. Henry P. Timmers, regent of Redondo Beach, will share hostess honors.

The function will honor Mrs. Harvey Blanchard Lyon, state regent, who will greet members and guests in a reception line prior to the luncheon.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Ion Bethel of Palos Verdes Estates, by Nov. 5.

Attending a recent Southern California DAR Council meeting in the Huntington Sheraton Hotel, Pasadena, were: Mmes. Timmers, regent; David Burt of Hermosa Beach, Millard Johnson of Palos Verdes Estates and Richard Friend of Manhattan Beach.

Speaker at the session was Gordon Browning whose topic was "Singing Subterfuge. He pointed out how subversive propaganda has been written in the lyrics of songs.

Juniors Knit For Children At Hospital

Mrs. Robert Schmidt conducted a Junior Woman's Club craft workshop at the Torrance Scout Center last Thursday evening.

The evening was spent knitting slippers for the patients in the pediatric ward at Harbor General Hospital.

Attending were Mmes. Vernon Nicles, Ronald Hoover, Ralph Brubaker, Carl Messmer, Tony Borges, and William Burchfield.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Alan Moore entertained her club last Monday afternoon at her home, 1741 Elm Ave.

Luncheon was served, followed by the bridge games in which Mrs. Don Wolf held high score and Mrs. W. L. Norman was second.

Mrs. Moore's guests were Mmes. Elizabeth Davies, James Harmon, Wayne Norman, Don LeGalley, D. J. Quinlivan, and Don Wolf. The club will be entertained next Monday, Nov. 2, by Mrs. Wayne Norman.

P. E. O. to Hear Talk On New County Museum

P.E.O. South Bay-Harbor Reciprocity will open the fall season with a buffet lunch at the Plush Horse Restaurant today at 12:30 p.m.

Speaker for the program will be Mrs. Alex Rudoff, volunteer representative for the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. She will illustrate her talk with colored slides of the $10,750,000 three-building complex nearing completion on Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles.

Dr. Richard Brown, Director, reports that the museum is the largest to be built in the United States in the last quarter century. It will house the $25,000,000 treasures to be moved from the Exposition Park location, and will also show noted visiting exhibitions from time to time.

The building was designed by William L. Pereira and Associates and is scheduled to open in April, 1965. In addition to the galleries, the complex will include facilities for lectures and music programs.

Mrs. Murray Squires, Chapter LQ San Pedro, will present the speaker. Mrs. C. B. Kellogg, GI San Pedro, will preside.

Unaffiliated members of P. E. O. are especially invited to this meeting and may make reservations with Mrs. L. Harper, or Mrs. W. D. Goldie.

Areas included in South Bay Reciprocity are Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, Wilmington, Lomita, Rolling Hills, Palos Verdes, San Pedro and Torrance.

Elected to Office

Miss Kathleen Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Audrey A. Moore of Torrance, has recently been elected a freshman class representative at Marymount College.

Cancioneros Will Stage Annual 'Singin' Supper'

On Sunday evening, Nov. 15, Los Cancioneros (The Singers) will hold their annual "Sing-for-Your-Supper" in the Palos Verdes High School multi-purpose room at 6:30 p.m.

The popular "singin' supper" will open the group's 16th consecutive season since its inception in the South Bay-Peninsula area. This is the night when residents have the pleasure of hearing the choral group in a preview of its 1964-1965 repertoire, under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Mabin of Rolling Hills, one of its founders. Added to this is the enjoyment of looking into their showcase of fine individual talent, informality and fun for the family mark this tasty and tuneful annual supper-concert.

Mrs. Harold Bothwell is general chairman, and assisting her are Mrs. Lawrence Abramson and Mrs. Carl Pulliam.

Ticket information can be obtained by calling Mrs. Kenneth Deets, chairman, or Mrs. Pulliam, or any chorus member.

Sorority to Sponsor 'Evening With Welk'

"An Evening with Lawrence Welk" will be presented by Rho Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Friday Oct. 30 at 8 p.m. The event will take place at the Hollywood Palladium, 6215 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, with the net profit to be used to support the chapter's philanthropic projects this year.

The public is invited to support these worthy projects by attending the benefit dance. Mrs. George Gregoreas, ways and means chairman, is in charge of all arrangements. Any further information concerning tickets and reservations may be obtained by calling either Mrs. George Gregoreas or Mrs. Gary Edwards, president.

Rho Epsilon joins with all California Beta Sigma Phi chapters in contributing to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. At a local level, members will again this year, design and make all the party favors for the more than 150 children at the Columbia School for the Mentally Retarded in Torrance. These are but two of the services performed by the chapter during the year.
