CARSON ESTATES . . . Spaciousness and close-in convenience are two of the many advantages of the new homes now being offered for sale at Carson Estates.

The Mariner, shown here, is one of several floor plans in the new development. The homes are located near the freeway in the Carson area.

LINDA BIALECKI Represents School

BMHS Miss Represents CSF Group

Miss Linda Bialecki, representing Bishop Montgomery High School, attended the California Scholarship Federation advisors' conference at the Ambassador Hotel.

"Opportunities Unlimited" was the theme for the meeting of 40 representatives. The conference was devoted to a discussion of advanced placement programs in which students with excellent ability take a college course and get college credits.

Linda participated in the biochemistry course offered by the California Museum of Science and Industry under a National Science Foundation grant.

She told the group that one of the chief advantages of the advanced placement program was that college work stimulates a drive for knowledge for the sake of knowledge through independent research.

DAILY MAIL . . . Postman Louis Banken empties a sack of mail addressed to the Mario Realty in Torrance while sales manager Manget Griffith and secretary Frances Mario look on. The daily deluge is usually full of requests for promotional material used by the firm. Conceived by owner Don Mario, the material is sent to every state in the union. Mario has received national recognition for his novel concept in real estate advertising. The office is located at 24218 Hawthorne Ave.
