

FOR MILADY OF ANY AGE . . . When the Torrance Junior Woman's Club stages its annual benefit Fashion Show on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. at the clubhouse, fashions for the entire family will be shown. Posing in some of the fashions to be modeled are, from left, Sheri Faulds, 5; Tina Borges, 3, looking on as, from left, Mrs. Tony Borges, models an orange colored fringe after-five dress; Mrs. William

Faulds shows the latest in sportswear, and Mrs. Frank Ashford displays a two-piece suit. Men's fashions will be modeled by husbands of members and there will be a demonstration in the new makeup techniques. Proceeds will be used to purchase a wheel chair for the pediatrics ward at Harbor Hospital. (Press-Herald Photo)

Amid Colorful Fall Decor

Junior Club Fashion Benefit Set Nov. 18

Bronze and gold chrysanthemums and foliage with arrangements of cornstalks and pumpkins will create a colorful fall setting for the benefit Fashion Show to be sponsored by the Torrance Junior Woman's club on Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Proceeds from this event have been earmarked by the Junior Woman's Club for the purchase of a wheel chair for the pediatrics ward at Harbor General Hospital.

Fashions for men, women, teen-agers and children will be featured. Club members and their husbands will model. The fashion festival will consist of clothes from specialty shops of Torrance. A unique feature of the fashion display will be an array of holiday fashions for the younger set. Sportswear will be shown and the show will conclude with an elegant extravaganza of evening fashions.

Topping off the show will be the new hair fashions worn by the mannequins and designed by a Torrance salon.

Mrs. Donald McKenzie is serving as chairman of the benefit. Models include Misses Linda Clark, Judy Nemeth; Mmes J. Morris, Tony Borges, William Faulds, John Bailey, Emma Roberts. Men modeling will be Robert Long, Chuck George and William Gay.

Guests attending will be treated to a special feature "A Lesson in Loveliness," demonstrated by Mrs. Ardella Johnson, who will point out the new art in makeup.

Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased from any Junior Club member.

Kimble's Host Party on Halloween

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kimble entertained at a gala Halloween costume party at their home, 4749 Darien, on Friday evening.

The family room, scene of the party, was festively decorated with lighted jack o' lanterns and other symbols of the day.

Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening, followed by a buffet supper.

Enjoying the Kimbles' hospitality were Messrs. and Mmes. William Crocker, J. A. Eisenbrandt, Phillip Patton, Wayne Norman, Lex Jones, Duane Kustic, Fred Gervig, Russell Love, Edward Lee, Thomas Edmunds, and Mr. and Mrs. William Templin of Fullerton, who were weekend guests at the Kimble home.

Entertains

Mrs. William Crocker was hostess to her bridge club at her Miraleste home last Monday.

Following a luncheon, bridge was played. At the final count, Mrs. Ralph McNeil held high score and Mrs. B. T. Whitney was second.

Club members present were Mmes. Delbert Thomson, Emma Roberts, Ruby Dix, B. T. Whitney and Ralph McNeil. Guests were Mrs. Robert Reid and Mrs. Robert Richie, both of Miraleste.

Mrs. J. Dean Visits Parents In Colombia

Mrs. Jack Dean, 2250 Gaucho Dr., Rolling Hills, returned Wednesday evening from a three weeks trip to Medellin, Colombia, South America, where she spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Speck, formerly of Torrance. Mr. Speck, who for many years was associated with American Standards in Torrance, is now on a Colombia assignment for the company.

Mrs. Dean was entertained at a round of parties during her visit and was taken on tours of the country. She was especially impressed by the work being done by the Peace Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Speck flew to Panama with their daughter on her return trip. They planned to remain at the Panama Hilton for several days. Mrs. Dean then flew to New York and went on to New Jersey where she spent several days with friends and relatives before coming on to California.

Canada Guests

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Black of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, will arrive Friday to spend two weeks here with their son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Black, 2925 W. 226th St. The Canadians will then take an apartment in Long Beach for the winter.

RECOGNITION FOR SERVICES . . . Candy Stripers at the Torrance Memorial Hospital were paid tribute for their hours of volunteer services at a Mother-Daughter Tea on Sunday. At the pinning ceremony are, from left, Mrs. James Kimble, founder of the Candy Striper organization, Carol Minech, Patricia Bean, and Sue Dawson, receiving their service pins from Mrs. Viola Anderson, director of nursing. (Press-Herald Photo)

Service Pins Awarded

Mother-Daughter Tea Fetes Candy Stripers

A Mother-Daughter Tea in the staff room at the Torrance Memorial Hospital on Sunday afternoon Oct. 25 from 2 until 4 p.m. honored the Candy Stripers, a teen-age group of volunteer workers at the hospital. The group was organized in March of this year, under the direction of Mrs. James E. Kimble, who welcomed the girls and their mothers at the tea.

Mrs. Shirley Minech, co-chairman of the Candy Stripers, gave a talk on reliability, responsibility and promptness. Guest speaker was Leonard Ensminger, hospital administrator, who spoke on the work of the Candy Striper organization.

Service pins and certificates were awarded to the girls for their hours spent at the hospital by Mrs. Viola Anderson. Certificates, for Candy Stripers serving less than 50 hours, were presented to Janet Adamson, Marianne Beuchel, Beverly Crocker, Marilyn Durfee, Sandy Enoch, Kay Roberts, Dana Wolinsky.

Fifty-hours-or-more certificates were awarded to Patricia Bean, Teresa Bridle, Karen Harding, Vicky Hayes, Kathleen Jessome, Carol Minech, Kathy Schet-

Three Local Girls Off On Island Holiday

Aboard Pan-American, flight 811, leaving International Airport at 8 p.m. last Friday evening were three local girls off on a two weeks holiday in Hawaii. They were Darlene Torgesen, daughter of Mrs. Doris Walker, 3527 W. 225th St., Diane Erickson, 3411 W. 225th St., and Wendy Van Horn of Redondo. The girls will tour the islands, visiting Maui, Hilo, Kona, Hawaii. They will then relax at Hawaiian Village, Oahu, Honolulu, returning to Los Angeles on Nov. 14.

Hospital Teen-age Volunteer Pins (American Hospital Association) were presented to the girls with 100 hours or more on their record. They were Michele Casey, 204 hours; Judith Coats, 148; Barbara Corbin, 147; Donna Dougan, 127; Susan Dawson, 100; Linda Hornback, 121; Linda Kazelskis, 106; Cadance Marquand, 128; Linda Storsteen, 168; and Cathy Yurkovich, 210.

Houseguest

Mrs. John Dowling of La Mirada is spending two weeks here with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O'Hara and family on Fern Ave.

SUE RIGGS . . . Future Bride (Portrait by Seeman)

Sue Riggs' Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riggs, 1624 W. 257th St., Harbor City, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sue, to Richard McLachlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McLachlan, 907 Gastine St., Torrance.

No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect, a 1962 graduate of Narbonne High School, attended Harbor College. She is now employed by Sears in Torrance.

Her fiancé, a 1960 graduate of Narbonne, is serving with the United States Army at Ft. Baker, near San Francisco.

Old Friends At Party In Westminster

Halloween provided an incentive for a group of Torrance friends and former Torrance friends to travel to Westminster last Saturday evening where they were entertained at a festive Halloween costume party given by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller, formerly of Torrance.

Games, dancing and a buffet supper made up a happy reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stewart of Garden Grove, formerly of Torrance, won the prize for the best costumes.

Attending from here were Messrs. and Mmes. John Agapito, C. E. Timms, Robert Tolson and Ed Greenwood.

Former residents joining the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Ray Royce, Bob Stewart, Garden Grove; Art Long, Rossmore; Irving Caulkins, Brea; Ken Lockman, Huntington Beach; Major and Mrs. Del Gilkeson of Merced.

Beverly Crocker Chosen TKE'S 'Little Sister'

Miss Beverly Crocker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Crocker of Miraleste, formerly of Torrance, is a freshman at the University of Southern California, Beverly, who is a second generation on USC campus, has pledged Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

The popular co-ed was also chosen "Little Sister" by Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and was crowned at the Presentation Ball last Saturday evening at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

Nancy Potere Exchanges Vows With W. Kramer

Approximately 150 guests gathered at the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes for the four o'clock wedding ceremony on Sept. 19, when Miss Nancy Jane Potere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Potere, 25 Hitching Post Dr., Rolling Hills, became the bride of William A. Kramer. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Kramer of Palos Verdes.

Mr. Potere escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a floor length white silk organza gown enhanced with lace. Her shoulder-length illusion veil fell from a pearl crown and she carried a cascade of white rose begonias and stephanotis. Miss Marcia Reed was maid of honor and other attendants were Cathy Potere, Syoney Barth and Nancy Woodruff. They were gowned in turquoise organza and each carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

Charles Fox stood as best man and ushers were George Purdue, Edward Martella, and Maurice Rodrigues.

Dr. Alfred King conducted the vow exchange and Helen Barnard Finley played the nuptial music. Carl Hoover was soloist.

A reception was held in the church parlor followed by another at the home of the bride's parents. Pat and Judy Kramer were in charge of the guest book.

Following a Las Vegas honeymoon, the newlyweds are now living in Torrance. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kramer are graduates of Palos Verdes High School. Mrs. Kramer, a member of Theta

MRS. WILLIAM A. KRAMER . . . Late Summer Bride (Portrait by Seeman)

HOLIDAY BAZAAR TIME . . . Christian Women's Fellowship of the South Bay Christian Church will stage its annual bazaar in the Recreation Hall at the Church, 128 N. Broadway, Redondo, on Saturday, Nov. 7, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A salad luncheon will be served in the lounge from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Displaying an array of holiday decorations, gift items, white elephants and baked goods, which will be on sale are, from left, Mmes. George Corbett, Derrell Lee, Melvin Shrader, Jr., of Torrance, president of the CWF, and Fred Renier. The public is invited.

Judge, Mrs. Shidler Speakers

B&PW World Affairs Dinner Slated Nov. 16

Judge and Mrs. John Shidler of Hollywood Riviera, who were drafted by the State Department to visit Pakistan as diplomatic representatives of the United States, will be the guest speakers at the "World Affairs" dinner to be sponsored by the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club.

"This will be an interesting, informative, and first hand report on this vital area in World Affairs today," stated Mrs. Jean Davis, B&PW press chairman.

The event will be held Nov. 16 at the Alondra Club, 16411 Prairie Ave., Lawndale.

The get-acquainted hour will begin at 7 p.m., followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Helen Giza, president, will conduct the business session and present the speakers. Door prizes will be awarded during the evening.

MRS. JOHN SHIDLER . . . B & PW Speaker (McIntire Photo)

At Lake Havasu

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean and Mr. and Mrs. William Mossman spent from Friday until Tuesday at Lake Havasu where they enjoyed water skiing.

The public is invited to attend this event and reservations, which must be in by Nov. 14, are being taken by Mrs. Helen Giza and Mrs. Jean Davis.