Carol Bean Reigns At Montgomery High

Senior Carol Bean has been selected by the Bishop Montgomery High varsity football team to reign over homecoming festivities at the school Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13 and 14.

Miss Bean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denis Bean of 20528 Vaccaro Ave.

Selected to compete with four other girls last week, Queen Carol won her title when the varsity football team cast ballots last Friday. She will receive her crown during the halftime ceremonies at the homecoming football game.

Marie Simon, Mary Kay Casey, Edie Weidenkopf, and Holly Gavin will surround Queen Carol as her court.

The homecoming dance will be held Saturday evening at Romanoff's in Beverly Hills.

Queen Carol is active in school clubs and serves as senior class vice president. She also is a member of the Pep Club and GAA.

50 Redondo Beach Leaders Chosen for Pilot Program

Fifty Redondo Beach civic leaders have been named as the participants in the pilot program of a national program of leadership development. Robert H. Rinn, president of the sponsoring Institute for Local Self-Government, made the announcement today in Berkeley. The two-day conference will be at the Plush Horse Inn on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13 and 14.

Rinn, a past president of the League of California Cities, is former Mayor of Lodi.

The participants were selected by a balloting of the heads of all organizations in Redondo Beach.

THE COMMUNITY Leadership Development Program is a result of almost 10 years of research and study by the Institute for Local Self-Government since its founding by the League of California Cities, in 1955.

The three workshop moderators will be Professor Albert Lepowsky of the University of California at Berkeley; Howard Gardner, associate director of the League of California Cities, and Warren Schmid, former executive di-

Clubs Name Fall Term Presidents

Two clubs at West High School have announced the election of officers for the fall semester.

Jane Moore has been elected president of the Distributive Education Club of America. Donald Jones is the new vice president. Patricia Erickson won the treasurer's spot, and Gary Brown was elected secretary of public relations.

Adele Palmer was elected president of the California Scholarship Federation chapter. Other CSP officers are: Kathleen Swift, vice president; Kay Hanson, secretary; and Carol Maa and Iris Imamura, historians.
