Vogue Pattern Fashions Holiday Fabric Show At May Co. Monday

Holiday fashions, never lovelier, never more exciting than this year, will be presented in a May Co. style show entitled "Holiday Highlights" on Monday Nov. 9 at 2 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m. at the May Co. South Bay Store.

The May Company's fabulous collections of European fabrics-by-the-yard will be on review. Luxurious hand-loomed tweeds from Scotland and Ireland, and lavish silks, woollens, velvets, laces and brocades representing the fabric artistry and genius of France, Italy, Germany and Switzerland, have been imported especially for this event.

These breathtaking fabrics have been made up in superb VOGUE PATTERN styles designated by the haute couture of Paris, London, Rome, Florence and New York. The resultant show—brilliantly continental in flavour—will offer a wealth of inspiration to California fashionables who seek the finest in style and fabric head-turning creations planned for festive occasions.

This notable collection of Vogue fashions in May Co. fabrics will include late-day suits and coats for traveling the holiday circuit, leisure clothes in the new genre of elegance, glamorous hostess costumes, and a glittering array of party clothes ranging from the "little evening" category to the all-out splendour of magnificent ballgowns.

Mrs. Pauline DeLano, Vogue Fashion Representative from New York, will be the May Company's guest commentator for this event.

YW Offers Classes in Social Dance

A new class in social dancing for adults will open Thursday evening, Nov. 12 at the Torrance YWCA and will continue for eight weeks meeting each Thursday evening. Registration for the class are now being taken.

Roger Blowers, instructor, will offer instructions in the basic steps of Fox Trot, Cha Cha, Swim, Tango, and Twist for beginners. Advanced students will receive instructions in all basic steps with emphasis on Latin American rhythms. The classes will consist of one hour of instruction and one hour of practice.

Blowers, well known in this area as a dance instructor, suggests "giving yourself a pre-holiday gift of eight dance lessons . . . cost is little, the resulting enjoyment is considerable".

Beginners meet from 7 to 8 p.m. for instruction, 8 to 9 p.m. supervised practice. Advanced students meet 8 to 9 for practice and 9 to 10 p.m. for instructions.

Anyone interested is asked to call the YWCA for further information and registration. The class will be limited in size.

Couple Sets Nov. 14 For Nuptial Day

Mr. and Mrs. Keith A. Helmick of Redondo Beach announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lee, to Brian D. Linehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Linehan, 844 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera.

The engagement news was first disclosed to family and close friends at a champagne supper party held at the home of the future bridegroom's parents.

The wedding will be solemnized on Nov. 14 at a nuptial mass at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church at high noon.

The bride-elect was graduated from North High School in June 1963.

Her fiancé, a Bishop Montgomery High School graduate, has completed four years in the medical corps of the United States Navy having served in Hawaii and the Philippines. He is now employed at a local market.

The future bride was complimented at a miscellaneous shower given on Oct. 24 by Mrs. Nina Copley, 3650 Emerald St., Torrance.

TORRANCE

Monday, Nov. 9, the Torrance Elementary PTA will choose as its theme "Our Responsibility within the Community" for their monthly association meeting. The meeting will be held in conjunction with an old fashioned pot-luck dinner, band concert, and a community sing-a-long, with all attending participating in the activities. Mrs. Louis Lisoni, hospitality chairman, has announced the following plans for the dinner. According to Mrs. Lisoni, it is required that those attending whose names commence with A through K, bring a hot dish enough to serve 10; L through T, are requested to bring a salad, enough to serve 10; and U through Z bring desert, as well as one package of dinner rolls. The Executive Board, acting as hostesses, will supply all table service, as well as coffee, tea and milk.

The band, under the direction of Mrs. Merlyn Anderson, will present a dinner concert. Arrangements are currently underway for a group sing-a-long after dinner. Due to the length of the evening's program, dinner will be served at 6 p.m. instead of the customary 7:30 p.m.

Plans are being made for a rummage sale to be held during the month of December. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Earl Carter.

EVELYN CARR

Highlighting the October meeting of the Evelyn Carr PTA was the world famous International Children's Choir. The Choir, composed of almost 100 children aged 3 to 14, represents all nations, has made many public appearances. Their selections were "Climb Every Mountain", "Keep In Touch", and their theme song, "Let There Be Peace On Earth".

Also as part of the program, students of Wally Newberry's U.S. Government class presented "Our American Heritage", a discussion of presidential elections, conventions, and nominations. Mrs. Stewart Angus, president, conducted the business portion. Prizes for the membership enrollment contest were awarded to Mrs. Murdoch and Mrs. Steele, teachers. Mrs. David Moss reported on the successful carnival and paper drive held the past month to raise funds for organization and welfare expenses.

Mmes. Stanley Jackson, Kenneth Durian, and Nels Weberg were appointed to serve on a library committee. A report on the District Legislation workshop was read. Skip Cunningham presented a PTA magazine narrative. Mrs. Henry Dalton, citizenship, was the featured chairman.

Wally Newberry's eighth grade class won the Attendance Trophy.

Toastmistress Club To Discuss 'Leadership'

"The Hand That Rules the Meeting, Knows the Rules", states Mrs. Edward Gregg, education chairman of the Hollypark Toastmistress Club who will be the main speaker at the club meeting Monday evening, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. at the Western Avenue Golf Club, 120th and Western Ave.

At the last meeting, Mrs. Bernard Chall was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Richard Dillon invites anyone interested to attend the meeting.

Further information may be had by calling Mrs. Dave Easton or Mrs. Richard Dillon.
