

CHRIS HAMILTON
"Curtain Up!"

'Curtain Up' Revue Will Open Saturday

The Carl Whitmer Dancers will appear Saturday and Sunday at the Redondo Beach

Union High School auditorium for a revue called "Curtain Up." The premier performance is slated for 8:30 Saturday evening, with a Sunday afternoon matinee at 2:30.

Through the magic of dance, the audience will be taken on a tour that ranges from a smart New York supper club to the orient, a holiday in Hawaii, and a bull fight in Sunny Spain.

Foreign intrigue, the savage rituals of dark Africa, and the nostalgia of the Gay Nineties will be recalled in three special dance numbers.

Circus time will climax the evening as Candi Bjornlie, Robert and Donald Bjornlie, and Pat Engle perform the hazardous "Animal Adagio" act.

Dancers taking part in the revue include: Duane Chase, Sandy Gray, William Hummer, Elyn Huber, Charles and Jamie Lockerby, Shelly Stewart, Glenn and Kevin Loder, Robert and Janet Gagne, and Miles McCormick.

Still others are Linda and Ross Brosius, Cathy LeMasurier, Troy Garza, Debbie Gray, David Hinman, Betty and Patti Campesi, Toni Santaella, Richard Platt, Laura Russell, Paul McConnell, Gail Doner, Tom Pittman, Valarie Krone, William Penn, Trudi Sturgeon, Zena Polly, Arlene Babbitt, and Jannet Severly, Chris Hamilton and Becky Sheely.

Robert Regger and Ruby Polly assisted with the production which Whitmer arranged.

BOB CRISP
On Youth Team

Youths to Lead Area Services

"Headline news is constantly made concerning youth delinquency, but we are pleased to announce that four local young people are comprising a Youth Team to lead the First Baptist Church of Lomita in a series of Evangelistic Services Nov. 13 through 22," Pastor James W. Hardin said today.

This Christian Youth Team is composed of Tony Grippando, youth minister; Bob Crisp, youth music director; Debbie Hall, pianist, and Suzie Price, organist. They will be assisted by the First Baptist Church Youth Choir, composed of 25 young people.

SPECIAL features will include the "Musical McGrews," talented associate pastor and family at Truett Memorial Baptist Church, Long Beach, and Danny Dion, youth evangelist from California Baptist College, Riverside.

Youth conferences will include such subjects as "Christianity vs. Communism," "Dating, Courtship, and Marriage," "Christian Conviction and Moral Purity," "How Determine Right from Wrong," and many other subjects. Through the medium of visual aids, these subjects will be dynamically presented.

THESE special evangelistic services will begin each evening at 7. We strongly encourage parents to bring the entire family since Nursery facilities will be provided for babies through three years, and for children ages four through twelve the 'Crown Children's Choirs' will afford excellent training and opportunity for development," the Rev. Mr. Hardin said.

Communism in Latin States Speech Topic

"Communism in Latin America" will be the subject of Dr. Paul Hadley when he speaks at El Camino College Tuesday at 11 a.m. Dr. Hadley is a professor of international relations at the University of Southern California.

The fifth speaker in the current history and political science lecture series, the professor served as director of the Paraguayan-American Cultural Center and as head of the Cultural Institute Unit in Washington, D.C. Dr. Hadley has been at USC since 1945 following three years with the Department of State.

The lecture, open to the public and without admission charge, will be held in Room 2 of the Commerce Building.

Anthropology Class Slated

A survey of the cultural history of the new and old worlds will be offered under the title, anthropology 3, at El Camino College during the spring semester. Instructor will be Edward H. Hosley. The three-unit course will parallel anthropology 3 at the University of California at Los Angeles.
