

Leonards Will Open New Store

A four-day opening celebration will be launched tomorrow in all Leonards Stores to signal the grand opening of the newest store in the Leonards chain.

Television, sports, and recording stars will join officials of the discount store operation to officially open the $4 million Burbank store, located at 641 N. Victory Blvd. To help mark the opening, stores in Torrance, El Segundo, and Garden Grove will feature special grand opening sale prices in every department.

"Our new store will enable our company to make bigger volume purchases, thereby making it possible for us to offer our customers even greater values than ever before," Robert Leonard Jr., president of the chain, said.

Ribbon cutting ceremonies will be held Saturday with Cathy Ferguson, Burbank's Olympic heroine, wielding the scissors. Top city officials and Leonards executives will be on hand, as will Donna Loren, television, recording star.

'Lil' Abner' To Be Staged

The citizens of Dogpatch, namely Lil' Abner, Daisy Mae and Mammy Yokum, will come to life at the Campus Theater of El Camino College Nov. 27 and 28 in the Bluth Bros. production of "Lil' Abner."

The Broadway musical written by Norman Panama and Melvin Frank with lyrics by Johnny Mercer and music by Gene DePaul is an adaptation of the misadventures of the original cartoon characters created by Al Capp.

Starring in the play are Jack Edwards as Abner and Maggie Montgomery as Daisy Mae, with support from Lonesome Polecat, Hairless Joe, Earthquake McGoon and Moonbeam McSwine. Musical numbers will include "If I Had My Druthers," "What's Good Enough for Bullmoose," "There's Room Enough for Us" and "Love in a Home."

Tickets are available in the Student Store of the Campus Center at El Camino. Reserved seats are $1.50.
