

Boy Scouts Winter Camp Opens Dec. 1

Members of the South Bay Council of Boy Scouts may take advantage of a different type of camping experience this winter at Lake Arrowhead scout camps. Complete with snow and winter sports fun, winter camping will be available at Lake Arrowhead after Dec. 1. Cedar Camp, Central Camp and Rotary Village will be open at that time. Facilities include six bunkhouses and eight Adirondack shelters. Units bring their own food. Reservations must be made with the Scouters' Service department at the Los Angeles Area council office.

Christmas Club Checks in Mail

Checks totaling more than $245,000, representing year-long Christmas Club savings by Pacific State Bank customers have been mailed to more than 1,600 Southwest residents, according to Ray Sherman, president. The sum represents a 15 per cent increase over the $212,616 in checks distributed last year, Sherman stated.

EAGLE SCOUT EVENT . . . D. F. Hays of North American Aviation sponsored Eagle Scout Robert Lyons of 22636 Lupine at the 20th annual Eagle Scout Recognition dinner at the Hollywood Palladium. The achievements of 500 Eagle Scouts from the Los Angeles Area Council were honored at the event. Each Eagle Scout was sponsored by a businessman whose field the scout hopes to enter.

Art Carnival Benefit Set For December

The annual Christmas Charity Art Carnival, sponsored by the South Bay Art Center, will be held from Dec. 6 to Dec. 24. Carnival proceeds will purchase art and craft supplies for the Southwest Association for Retarded Children and the Avalon Community Center. A drawing for six or more original paintings by art center members will be featured at the carnival.

Security Bank Submits High Bid for Storm Drain Bonds

Security First National Bank has submitted an apparent high bid for the purchase of $10 million in County storm drain bonds issued under the 1958 bond act, Supervisor Burton W. Chace has announced. Chace said the offer to purchase the bonds at an interest rate of 3.17 per cent was the highest among six bids received by the Board of Supervisors. The block represents the 12th sale of the 1958 issue, Chace noted. A total of $155 million has been purchased in previous sales. The 1958 bonds provides for the construction of 184 key projects under the $225 million bond issue, Chace said. Nearly 85 per cent of all projects have been completed or are now under construction.
