Quarterly Stake Now In Session

Presiding at a quarterly conference of the Torrance Stake today is Elder LeGrand Richards, member of the Council of Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Torrance Pair Attend Classes At Marquette

Mary C. C. Roe and James G. Fleming, both of Torrance, have enrolled at Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wis., for the fall term. Miss Roe, a student in the College of Liberal Arts, lives at 2005 W. 177th St. Fleming, 3301 W. 166th St., is a student in the School of Medicine.

General sessions of the conference will be held today at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. at Torrance Temporary Stake Center, 1635 W. 9th St., San Pedro. Sessions will be conducted by Stake president Roland Earl Gagon of Rolling Hills Estates.

ATTENDING also are Arthur D. Browne, member of the Sunday School general board; A. Burt Keddington and Lila James, representing the Young Men's and Young Women's Mutual Improvement Associations of the church.

Elder Richards served for 14 years as presiding bishop of the church prior to his present appointment. Other offices held by Richards include missionary and two appointments as a mission president.

Coordinator of higher education at the Utah State School offices, Elder Browne has taught at Stanford University, San Jose College, Bennington College, Vt., University of Denver, and Syracuse University.

ELDER Keddington, recently appointed a member of the YMMIA general board, is known for his work in vocal music and has been active in spiritual, business and civic affairs.

During service in the Norwegian Mission, Miss James assisted with proofreading and correcting a Norwegian hymn book, "Pearl of Great Price," and the Doctrine and Covenants.
