

Marigolds Plan Yule Charities

Marigolds of the Riviera Community Hospital in Torrance held a bake sale Nov. 7 in the lobby of the hospital. Pies, cakes, cookies, brownies and home-baked bread were sold, in individual servings or quantity. Free coffee was served to visitors from the coffee cart donated to the hospital by the Marigolds. Acting president, Marni Josephson of Palos Verdes Estates was in charge of the sale. Mrs. Donald Edwards of Redondo Beach was adult supervisor.

Proceeds from the bake sale will be used for the Marigolds' Christmas projects, which includes furnishing decorated place mats and tray favors for hospital patients during the holidays and stuffed animal toys for pediatric patients and new babies.

A Torrance Girl Scout troop and two Tri-Hi-Y groups will be helping with the project.
