

Homes Tour and Tea Yule Parlor Parade Slated On Weekend

The Christmas season officially opens on the Peninsula Friday and Saturday, Dec. 4 and 5, when the Women's Fellowship of the Neighborhood Church stages its annual Homes Tour and Christmas tea. Mrs. Donald Feigar is serving as chairman, assisted by Mrs. John Sainsevain. The two-day Yule Parlor Parade will be open from noon to 5 p.m. both days.

Four homes, decorated to represent important phases of Christmas, will be open to the public. They are the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brown, 2501 Navato Place; the Richard E. Deans, 965 Via Rincon; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Oberman, 589 Via Del Monte; and Mr. and Mrs. Irmin Roberts, 700 Horcada Place.

Following the tour of the homes, guests will be entertained at a Christmas tea at the church. Throughout the afternoon there will be holiday music furnished by the choir, soloists, and carillon.

A special feature at the tea will be the Yule Shop providing guests with an opportunity to purchase many handmade gift items, Christmas candles, homemade holiday foods and many glittering Christmas decorations.

Funds from this eighth annual Yule Parlor Parade will be used to support Dr. and Mrs. Harold Eymann, missionaries at Central Christian College in the Philippines, Toberman House in San Pedro, American Field Service, YWCA, a scholarship for a seminary student at the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, and other charities.

Tickets are now on sale at the church or may be secured at any of the homes on the tour.

Oh, nuts!

Don't give up at salad time. Try this nutty (and delicious) idea: Take a California canned cling peach half and put it on a bed of lettuce. Fill the hollow with a ball of cream cheese rolled in chopped nuts. Happy eating!
