Basketball Team Plays In Arena

Twelve eighth grade boys at Crenshaw School have chalked up a basketball triumph that didn't appear anywhere on a scoreboard.

The boys, who usually play teams on the Alondra gymnasium courts, recently made an appearance at the Los Angeles Memorial Sports Arena. There, they provided half-time diversion for fans of the Lakers.

The boys—Celtics when on the court—will meet Hamilton School at El Camino Dec. 18, and later in the season the team will play at North High. Most of the time, however, the boys play at Alondra Park.

Carl Hovey, an eighth grade teacher at Crenshaw, coaches the team. He gets help from Pat Brady, Ben Hatfield, Stanley Ton, and Dave Murphy. Two jaycee teams, the Cobras and the Revels, accompany the Celtics on away games.

The Celtics also have a cheerleading squad, under the direction of Miss Mary Morrissey. Girls on the squad are Janice Bates, Susan Carr, Barbara Appadacca, Andrea Christie, Roxanne Chapman, and Toni Wells.

SEASONAL VISITORS . . . Reindeer that look like they might be Santa's own are spending the holidays at Vel's Ford Sales at 20900 Hawthorne Avenue. Agency owner Vel Miletich has extended an invitation for area families to visit the reindeer display at the agency.

Santa Claus To Visit at Vel's Ford

Santa Claus has set up quarters at Vel's Ford, 20900 Hawthorne Ave., until Christmas Eve.

Santa, his reindeer and sled, are quartered at the dealership and will be available for every day from 5 until 10 p.m. Children also may mail their letters to Santa in a special box at Vel's Ford.

Comet, Donner, Blitzen, Princess, and Rudolph are on hand to greet all visitors from noon until 10 p.m. The exhibit is located on the front display lot at the agency.

Canvas on Exhibition

An exhibition of modern paintings by Arthur Schneider, noted artist, muralist, author and lecturer, will open Monday at Great Western Savings and Loan Association, Hawthorne Avenue and Artesia Boulevard.

Schneider, a resident of San Pedro, is a teacher in the Lawndale school system and a former lecturer at UCLA. He completed his undergraduate studies at New York University and received his master's degree from the University of California, Berkeley.

He studied the fresco method of art under Jose Clements Orozco, a famous Mexican muralist.

The theme of the two-week exhibit, which is open to the public, is "Forty Points in a Turning World."

El Camino

Yuletide Concerts Planned

Three choral concerts scheduled Saturday, Sunday and Dec. 18, will highlight the Yuletide season at El Camino College.

Vivaldi's "Magnificat" will be presented Saturday at 8:30 p.m. by the El Camino chorale under the direction of Mrs. Jane Hardester. A group of poetic motets, assorted seasonal carols, and Hannukah selections will be performed also. Featured soloists will be Margaret Davis, Carol Neblett, Lee Fishback and Paul Yale.

The college concert choir and mixed chorus will present Johann Sebastian Bach's musical setting of the "Magnificat" Sunday at 3:30 p.m. Soloists, selected by the music faculty, will be Janice Graham, Miss Davis, Sue Treadgold, Yale, Fishback, John Walker and Dan Durrant. The brass ensemble, under the direction of Lewis Higel, music instructor, will provide instrumental background for the concert.

Soloists Margaret Davis, Charlene Beeler, Dorothy Shulpis, Carl Hoover, and Robert Gunderson will be featured in the C.P.E. Bach "Magnificat" Dec. 18 at 8:30 p.m. The community choir and men's glee club and the college community orchestra will appear on this program also.

All concerts will be held in the El Camino College Campus Center and admission is without charge.
