Tschauner-Ames Nuptials Recited in Chapel Rites

Following a northern California honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lavern Ames have returned to Torrance to make their home. The bride was married recently in a mid-morning ceremony at the Wayfarers' Chapel, Mrs. Ames is the former Miss Frankie Norene Tschauner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Anderson, 1707 W. 239th St., Torrance.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ames of Foster, Oregon.

Rev. Robert Loring officiated at the marriage for which the bride wore a princess gown of Alencon lace over taffeta. The scalloped Sabrina neckline was decorated with seed pearls and a panel of Alencon lace enhanced the bouffant skirt. A headpiece of lace petals, studded with pearls, held the bridal veil and she carried white roses and ivy. Mr. Anderson escorted the bride to the altar.

Mrs. John W. Greer was matron of honor. She was gowned in topaz peau de soie. Bridesmaids were Misses Vicki A. Mills and Kay Lorayn Morris. They also wore topaz peau de soie and all the bouquets were bronze pom poms tied with moss green ribbons.

Robin Meek was flower girl and Danny Meek carried the rings.

John W. Greer stood as best man and ushers were Charles Beck Jr., Richard L. Miles and Clinton L. McArthur.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents with Mrs. Bill Meek at the guest book.

The bride was graduated from South High School in 1963. Her husband is serving with the United States Navy aboard the USS Bennington.

Special guests here for the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Myrtle Morris and her two aunts, Mrs. Clarence Fairbrother and Mrs. Harold Baughn, all of Oregon.

Honor Visitors

The holiday spirit prevailed at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach recently when Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. McMillan of Torrance hosted a gala dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bray, who are visiting here from Bloomfield Hills, Mich.
