

MRS. ROBERT BROADDUS
... On Wedding Day
(Portrait by Seeman)

Roberts-Broaddus Names Annual Party Are Linked in Marriage

Among the December brides is Miss Christine Roberts of Lakewood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Roberts, 2332 W. 241st St., Lomita, who was married to Robert L. Broaddus of Redondo in an evening ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Torrance on Dec. 5. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William L. Broaddus of Inglewood.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a traditional candlelight satin princess gown ornamented with lace appliques on the bodice and skirt. The gown featured a scoop neckline, long pointed sleeves and a chapel train. A pearl crown held the fingertip veil and the bridal bouquet was of orchids encircled by Stephanotis.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Paul J. Henderson, matron of honor; Misses Delight Miller, Gracie Connett and Mrs. William Paul, bridesmaids. All wore long sapphire blue gowns with short veil headpieces. Their bouquets were white chrysanthemums with blue tips.

Miss Pamie Paul was flower girl and Ricky Boldt, ring bearer. Best man duties were performed by Ronald Johnson. Ushers were Ted Carrington Jr., William Paul and Howie Haworth.

Rev. Douglas Jeffrey officiated at the double ring marriage service.

The newlyweds greeted the 375 guests at a reception in the church hall, after which the couple left for a honeymoon at Carmel and Lake Tahoe.

The bride, a graduate of Bob Jones University and Pepperdine College, is a teacher in the Long Beach school district.

Her husband, a Redlands University graduate, is an employee of an insurance company in Los Angeles.

Delta Beta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority held its annual holiday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sciarrotta in Torrance.

Members, guests and pledges enjoyed an evening of dancing and a gift exchange at which time "secret sisters" were revealed.

Members and husbands attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Dave Mulgrew, John Colner, Jim Dodson, Herbe Harger, Fred Koeller, Joseph McCoy, John McFarlane, Sam Snyder; and Mrs. Kay White.

Pledges and husbands were Messrs. and Mmes. Byron Scott and Mac Judge; and guests Messrs. and Mmes. Ed Ferraro, Joseph Sporsic, John Dunn; and Mr. Phil Cable.

Old favorite — Cranberry Orange Relish: Use the course blade and put 1 lb. fresh cranberries with two oranges that have been seeded and quartered through the food grinder. Add 2 cups of sugar; then chill.

W. J. Diehm To Address Solo Parents

Solo Parents of the Harbor Area Y.W.C.A. will have William J. Diehm, pastor of the Ocean View Baptist Church in San Pedro, as their speaker when they meet at 8 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 15, at the Headquarters Bldg., 437 West 9th St., San Pedro.

Diehm, who is new in this area, has studied at Northwest Christian College, Phillips University, the University of Oregon, Washington State College, USC, and UCLA. He has taught school for three years and has been a Dale Carnegie Instructor for nine years with experience in setting up leadership courses for General Motors. In addition he has done some work with the American Institute of Family Relations in the field of marriage counseling. Currently he is writing a book on psychology for the common man.

The continuing plan for Solo Parents to present guests who will cover the various interests of members of the group.

According to Mrs. Betty DeVry of Torrance, president, "Men and women who are single parents with either custody or visiting rights are welcome to attend. The purpose of the organization, she states, is to promote social contact for the ever increasing number of men and women in this area whose children are being reared in single parent households. Our membership, she concluded, includes parents from Gardena, Wilmington, Torrance, Palos Verdes Estates, Los Angeles, El Segundo, Long Beach, San Pedro, and Rolling Hills."
