Two BMHS Girls Win Citations

Two Bishop Montgomery High seniors have been named local winners in "Seventeen" magazine's "Plan a Dream Room" contest and will participate in the magazine's national judging.

Pauline Salido and Nancy Chandler were cited for their designs in the local contest. Both entries have been forwarded to New York for judging with other local winners.

Miss Salido won the Class 1 division, submitting a dream bedroom which features white French provincial styling and red accents. Miss Chandler won the Class 2 contest with a den decorated in blues and greens. It features walnut woodwork and orange fabrics.

The purpose of the contest is to teach girls the essentials of home decorating. Judging

Strip Area Population Shows Gain

Estimated population of the Torrance-Harbor City portion of the City of Los Angeles was 22,400 as of Oct. 1, 1964, according to reports released by the Regional Planning Commission.

The Torrance "strip" area had 11,700 residents, a gain of nearly 2,000 over the federal population figures for April, 1960. Harbor City showed an increase of 1,700 for a total population of 10,700 as of Oct. 1, 1964.

Total population of southern Los Angeles—Gardena, Harbor City, San Pedro, Wilmington, and the strip—was 136,300, an increase of nearly 13,500 over the 1960 census.

is based on the use of space and color, imagination, neatness, general effect, and appropriateness to needs.

Residents Get Prizes For Jingles

Five area residents have won fourth place prizes in a jingle contest sponsored by the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute, F. H. Wright, west coast manager, has announced.

The contest required contestants to think up commercial variations on the "Knock, Knock; Who's There" game. A total of 150 fourth prizes, picnic coolers, were awarded.

Local winners included: Laurie Battles, 560 S. Nelberta Ave., Redondo Beach; M. Gamson, 24458 Park St., Torrance; Mrs. Allan Gilberg, 22744 Fries Ave., Wilmington; Mrs. H. Hays, 17017 Yukon Ave., Torrance, and Ricky Kroeger, 5227 Halison St., Torrance.

The $2000 first prize was won by a Palm Springs housewife.
