INDIAN VILLAGE

Ten intriguing salad-and-cold plate items, 15 complete luncheons and 15 extraordinary sandwiches are now temptingly featured on the newly - expanded mid - day menu at Sm-th Bros. Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance. The luncheons are as imaginative as they are diversified, according to manager Mrs. Virginia Smith Haack, whose new menu offers so many fascinating suggestions that it's difficult to choose. But whichever is selected you will decide that you could not have done better. The chilled salmon plate is especially good, the patty smelt sandwich first-rate, the broiled halibut pee-less, and luncheon guests won't find a better cracked crab salad anywhere.
