ALL 'ROUND THE TOWN

With BOB FLOURY

THE BARBARY COAST on bass, and Alma Balier is the pretty girl singer. The group has been featured at the Mariner Hotel at 2450 Pacific Coast Highway in Torrance that headlines the Town Pipers, one of the most popular entertainment groups ever to play Las Vegas, Reno and Lake Tahoe. They will be featured at Cindy and Johnny Pappas' Barbary Coast Room for a two-week run. Incidentally, the Barbary Coast Room has a menu that the customer can eat. Five different types of steak and lobster tail are featured on a silver platter where the customer can choose his dinner. Price is only $3.95.

PORTOFINO INN Once television comedy writer Ray Parker visited Portofino Inn in Redondo Beach and decided he'd like to go sailing. He couldn't, because nowhere in the sprawling Redondo Beach Yacht Harbor was there a sailboat for rent to casual visitors. Parker, who writes material for Art Linkletter's CBS network "House Party," mentioned to Portofino owner Mary Davis his desire to sail a boat, and as a result the hotel now offers a unique service to its guests. For $5 (up to three passengers) to $8 an hour (four or five), anyone can take a ride aboard a 27-ft. sloop owned by veteran South Bay sailor Bill Smith. Smith has two such craft tied up in the Portofino Marina.

He offers either sailing lessons or a leisurely run out into coastal waters for those rates. Prevailing southwesterly winds and nearly year-round afternoon sunshine (Continued on Next Page)
