

Family Picnic Opens Year For SARC

An "All States Family Picnic" will be the theme of the opening meeting of the Southwest Association for Retarded Children on Thursday, Sept. 9, at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd., Torrance. (The Center is located off Madrona Avenue behind Benstead Plunge.)

The get-acquainted dinner will be a potluck and is scheduled for 6 p.m. The public is invited. Coffee, punch, and table setting will be provided.

Al Schild of Torrance, program chairman, has planned a question and answer meeting. On hand to answer legal questions about Aid to the Needy Disabled, guardianship, wills, etc., will be Richard Collins of Palos Verdes, attorney for SARC. There will be films for the children during the meeting.

A Year To Remember

When the Bay Harbor Hospital Guild opens its year on Sept. 20, the membership will be presented with a lineup of money-making projects and services to the hospital as the outcome of meetings by a busy board. Making a final check of the year's agenda are, from left, seated, Mmes. John Rados, William D. Russell, Charles F. Crawford. Standing, from left, Mmes. Tom Yoshida, Charles H. Sell, Bertram J. Lee and Wade H. White.

Bay Guild Will Open Year

Mrs. William D. Russell, new president, will preside when the Bay Harbor Hospital Guild opens its year with a regular meeting on Sept. 20 at 12 noon at the hospital.

Other new officers who will assume their responsibilities for the new year are Mmes. John Rados, president-elect; Charles Crawford, first vice president;

Tom Yoshida, second vice president; Wade H. White, third vice president; Charles Sell, secretary; Bertram Lee, corresponding secretary and Fred Pierce, treasurer.

The board will present to the membership, events that have been planned for the coming months beginning with a barbecue to be held Oct. 9 at the American Legion Hall in San Pedro. This will be a major fund raising event with all proceeds to be used for purchasing hospital equipment.

The Candystriper program, under the direction of Mrs. Donald Houske, will be discussed. This is a project for girls, 15 to 18 years, to assist with many tasks at the hospital including errands for patients, delivering mail and flowers.

Mrs. Ted Springfield, chairman, has announced that the hospital's gift shop will be open seven days a week.

Albright-Cossey Nuptials

Among the summer newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Larry H. Cossey, who are making their home in Oakland. Mrs. Cossey is the former Patricia Ann Albright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Albright, Jr., 23313 Pennsylvania Ave. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Jack H. Cossey of Norman, Okla.

Steven Wernsman, Bruce Browne, and John Albright. Rev. George Sinkinson, STB, conducted the vow exchange as Richard Gehoke played the organ.

A reception was held in the parish hall. The honeymoon was spent in Los Angeles and at Lake Tahoe. The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School.

The marriage was solemnized in an evening ceremony on June 22 at the St. Luke's Episcopal Church in San Francisco.

Mr. Albright escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white organza, fashioned with a fitted bodice, scalloped round neckline, long lace sleeves. The long bouffant skirt was edged in a band of the lace, which also enhanced the wateau train. A princess tiara held her lace-edged veil and she carried tiny white and yellow orchids.

Mrs. Ray Mendoza, in a blue ensemble and carrying yellow African daisies, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids, wearing yellow chifon and carrying white daisies, were Misses Patricia Hughes, Kathleen Mendoza and Vickie Neathery. Kathy Jones was flower girl and Timothy Lee and Lawrence Albright carried the rings.

William R. Slaughter was best man and ushers were
