Bike Champs Eye Grand National

Motorcycle racers from Maryland to Seattle converge on Ascot Park for the running of J. C. Agajanian's 7th annual 8-mile Grand National dirt track championships Friday and Saturday nights.

Championship finals Saturday night start at 8:30 p.m. following Friday night's qualifying trials and a complete program for West Coast novice riders.

Stock Cars To Invade Riverside

Stocks will race Friday night on Riverside International Raceway's 1/2-mile oval for the first time.

The Raceway, which helped to change the flavor of NASCAR's Grand National circuit when modified racing was introduced to the sport, will offer its highbanked oval course to the Southern California based stars of California Auto Racing, Inc.

The machinery will be the super stock cars of CAR, and the drivers will include some of the West's top names—Ron Hornaday, Eddie Grey, Clem Proctor, Jim Cook, and Walt Price.

The 50 plus entry list includes all the leading drivers from Ascot-based CAR and the Saugus group of Pacific Racing Assn. competitors. Many, like 1964-65 Pacific Coast champion Hornaday, are also leaders on the NASCAR late model stock car circuit.

Super stocks, a class between late models (1963-65 model American cars) and early model stockers (pre-1958) are powered by highly modified engines of up to 1965 manufacture. The only requirement is that car and engine be made by the same company.

Race Director Les Richter has scheduled a full program for the CAR stockers Friday, followed by another race two weeks later, Sept. 24.

Tough Metro JC Race Predicted

There's a new face in the head coach's office at Long Beach City College, but the old question lingers on in the Metropolitan Conference. Can the Vikings be challenged for the championship?

Long Beach lost a good one when Jim Strangeland joined the USC coaching staff a few weeks ago, but the new man—Rollie Eilerts—is neither a stranger to junior college coaching or to winning championships.

Prior to serving as an assistant on Strangeland's staff for the past several years, Eilerts coached Downey to the big schools CIF championship in 1957 and before that was coach at Imperial Junior College.

New man at Valley JC is George Goff, who has moved up from an assistant's post to succeed George Ker. Goff is formerly of Birmingham High School.

Conference-wise the outlook is for stronger football in some areas, weaker in others. Those who automatically expect Bakersfield to come up with its usual top juggernaut may be in for a shock.

A total of 120 candidates turned out for coach Ray Newman, but of these only nine were lettermen.

Here is the team by team rundown:
For a report on El Camino, turn to page D-1.

Long Beach

If the Vikings had an offensive line to compare with their offensive backfield, they'd be a virtual shoo-in to repeat their national No. 1 JC ranking of last season.

At one halfback: Marvellous Marvin Motley, last year's Metropolitan Conference player of the year, and who rushed for 1,174 yards.

At fullback: Elwood Stewart, who averaged 6.55 yards per carry.

Lakers Open Season at Rolling Hills

Southern California fans will get their first look at the 1965-66 Los Angeles Lakers on Sept. 18 when Coach Fred Schaus' defending western division champions stage an intra-squad game at Rolling Hills High School.

All 11 returning players, as well as the first five draft picks who are bidding for berths on the roster, will compete in the regulation-length game which will be played under NBA rules with the 24-second clock.

Rookies hopefuls are Gail Goodrich of UCLA, John Fairchild of Brigham University, DeWayne Cruse from Idaho State, Jim Caldwell from Georgia Tech, and George Unsel from Kansas.

Also due to take part in the Sept. 18 intra-squad tilt are veterans Elgin Baylor, Jerry West, Rudy LaRusso, LeRoy Ellis, Gene Wiley, Dick Barnett, Jim King, Walt Hazzard, Darrall Imhoff, Don Nelson and Billy McGill.

At halfback: Rich Croson, returning starter.
At quarterback: Greg Barton, who had 92 completions in 160 tries for 1,480 yards.
"We'll be strong defensively," says Eilerts, "for we have good team speed there. But we're going to have to build another offensive line."
East L.A.
Coach Bill Thompson has a proven quarterback in Art Arzate.
Returning lettermen include Phil Adamo, wingback; Manuel Carbajal, tackle; Harry Cook, end; Mike Fiebelkorn, guard; Don Harwell, tailback; MacArthur Moore, tackle; John Movsesian, end; Joe Murrilo, guard; Dennis Provenzano, end; Jim Regan, center; and Martin Vidinoff, guard.
Valley
Four quarterbacks are battling for the No. 1 job for Valley J.C. Top signaling candidates are Ed Mitchell, first all city at Fairfax, and Mike Roach, second all city at Reseda.
Others are Roosevelt Raines and Bernie Carr. If they can get sufficient protection, Coach Goff could have something, especially since the Monarchs will have good over-all team speed.
Santa Monica
Only a slim turnout of 60 gridders greeted coach Jim Powers when Corsair practice opened last week. But true to the Powers football format of strong passing, two of the candidates were promising quarterbacks—Bob Matthews of Venice and John Erdhaus. Powers lost 27 lettermen. "We have good receivers, but a counteracting factor is our lack of depth and size in the line," says Powers.
Cerritos
A good running game and a good defense are the bright spots for coach Smokey Cates at Cerritos. He also has back his starting quarterback of a last year due to a leg injury. Milt Jackson decided to turn out for football again. But elsewhere there is nothing but worry for Coach Newman.

There is talk of a new offensive look at Bakersfield—a wide open game, but it will be dependent on how the youngsters develop.
