

They Must Be Sure

That island custom of wearing a flower over the ear, to designate a lady's marital state, has these three members of the Couples Club, from left, Mmes. Richard Caldwell, Orvin Ongstad, seated, and Lloyd Schemmel, searching for an authority. The distaff side of the Couples club will wear the flowers when they don their mumuus for the annual Luau to be held at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection Fellowship Hall Saturday evening at 7 p.m. Host couples are the John Petersons, Jerry De Jonges, Orvin Ongstads and Richard Cawdwells. Doing the island decorating are the Johan Eliassens, Lloyd Schemmels and Dale Fishers.

University Women Begin Study 'Law and Citizen'

"Law and the Citizen" is an American Association of University Women study topic for the 1965-67 biennium. Three study sections within the Manhattan Beach Branch have formed: Law and the Citizen; Equal Justice; Concepts of Justice. The Law and the Citizen study section has a program which will familiarize members with legal traditions and legal contemporary applications. Chairman Mary Jane Walker has slated the first meeting for Sept. 22, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Arthur Ferry, 1025 Granvia Altamira, Palos Verdes Estates. The September meeting will feature Judge Donald Armstrong, South Bay Municipal Court, Redondo Beach, who will speak on the topic, "Do You Know Your Judge?"

The Equal Justice study section will deal with current problems of equal justice for minority groups under our legal system. Mrs. Gerson Golstick, chairman, and Mrs. Roland Cordill, assistant chairman, have slated a first meeting in October. Concepts of Justice, the third study section, is chaired by Mrs. Robert Scholtz. The group will concentrate on the attitudes and reflections of Justice as seen in literature, music, and art. The year's first meeting, Sept. 16, will begin at 8 p.m. Mrs. Robert Scholtz, 439 Prospect, Manhattan Beach, will be hostess. Further information concerning these study sections may be obtained by contacting the program chairman, Mrs. George Brewster.

Las Ninas Organized

Las Ninas de Las Madrecitas, a newly-formed Junior Auxiliary to the Orthopaedic Hospital, consisting of the young daughters of Las Madrecitas members, were guests of honor at a luncheon and tour at the Orthopaedic Hospital on Wednesday Sept. 8.

Junior Auxiliary members and their mothers gathered at the home of Mrs. Hal D. Leslie Jr., 4021 Via Pima, Palos Verdes, to make the trip to the Hospital.

Members of the Las Ninas are the young ladies, who were presented at the Las Madrecitas Evergreen Ball last December. They are Misses Pamela Kahlo, Claudia Kline, Constance Koehler, Sylvia Cano, Mary Katherine Leslie, Kathryn Shull, Carol Van Valkenberg and K. G. Walsh.

Las Madrecitas members, Mmes. H. W. Hansen, Hal D. Leslie, Jr., and C. Blaine Shull have worked many hours to organize this young group.

Festive Farewell Party Fetes Norven McKean

Mr. and Mrs. Norven McKean of San Pedro were guests of honor at a surprise farewell party on Saturday evening given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Major in Miraleste. Friends from the San Pedro, Palos Verdes and South Bay areas gathered on the gaily-decorated patio to wish the couple and their seven children, Toni, Michael, Molly, twins Pat and Paul and twins Kevin and Jamie, all good luck in the family's move to Ventura where "Mac" McKean has established his new "Chicken Delight" venture. Highlight of the evening's festivities was an original skit written by Mrs. Andy Meier and performed by several of the amateur thespians present. The McKean were later given a cocktail set as a remembrance from their many friends. Hosts and hostesses were Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Casstevens and Jerry Steigbrecher of Torrance; Robert Jackson of Rolling Hills; John Adams of Santa Ana; Andy Meier, Jr. of San Pedro; and Sam Major of Miraleste. Friends from Torrance in on the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Tom Bannan, William R. Campbell, Howard De Castro, Leo Dube, James Husereau, Cleve Kimmel, Chuck Luttrell, Ellis Myer, Tom Prevo, Jerry Steigbrecher, Willis Stroub, John Tippin, David Wesson; Fred Casstevens; from Redondo, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cassell.

Club Party at Diamond Bar

Mrs. Bruce Lee, who recently moved from Torrance to Diamond Bar, Calif. near Brea, entertained her bridge club last Wednesday at her new home. A luncheon was served followed by an afternoon of bridge. Club members making the trip to Diamond Bar were Mmes. J. H. Hull, Ralph Brooms, Joe Brunell, Kenneth Boulter, Mark Caldwell, Howard Huizing, C. Albert Smith and Jerry Hanlon. Mrs. Charles Lockwood of Torrance attended the first fall meeting of the Xi Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi on Sept. 8 at the Melrose Nursery in Los Angeles.

Arrives From Ohio
Mrs. Anthony Paridon of Cleveland, O. arrived last Monday to spend a week here with her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Purchase and family, 1925 W. 186th St., Torrance. Mrs. Paridon will visit friends in San Diego before returning to Ohio.

Alpha Omegas Rush

Rushing season is here again for the Alpha Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Torrance. The first event was a tea held Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 at the home of Mrs. Lindy Bush, 1734 Califon Ave., Torrance.

The prospective members were greeted by Mrs. Jim Harkins, vice president, who presented each with a yellow carnation corsage tied with black ribbon, the sorority colors. The afternoon was spent discussing projects and future ambitions of the chapter as well as showing the scrapbook depicting the events and projects of last year.

Pouring were hostess Mrs. Lindy Bush and Mrs. Robert Bowman, chapter president. Special guests were Mrs. Ellen Bainco, Mrs. Paul Jordal, and Mrs. Lester Mayfield, Advisor. Rushes were honored at a cake party Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lou Brownlee, 21217 Water St., Torrance.

Card Frolic Slated For Fiestadores

A "card party" theme has been chosen by the Las Fiestadores Dance Club's committee for the group's September dance.

On clever invitations, members were invited to the Arthur Woodcock "Casino" 4033 Via Pima, Palos Verdes, for cocktails at 8 p.m. prior to going to the "Queen's Kitchen" in downtown Torrance for dancing.

Frank Snyder and his band will furnish the dance music. On the committee for the Saturday dance are Messrs. and Mmes. James Kimble, Don McCalman, Robert Morton and Arthur Woodcock.
