

Spartans Speak

By Norma Burkus

Hi! Another school year has begun at South High and already the campus is buzzing with activity. The buzz will rise to a higher note this year due to the annual brace of new freshmen. Although the Class of 1969 is not the largest class South has witnessed, it does its share in crowding the halls and lengthening the lunch line! Anyway, welcome freshmen and I hope your four years at South prove to be very fulfilling.

With only three days of school and a blessed weekend behind us, the Spartans have already staged two annual activities, these being the intersquad Green and White football game and the Howdy Hop, both held last Friday.

The game was a success, bringing throngs of people into the bleachers to speculate on our up and coming football team and to witness the first performance of the Spartan Band and new Pep Squad. Afterwards, the Spartans danced to the music of the "Gentry's" and by the looks of the gym floor, everyone had a great time.

IF YOU happen to pass South High this week, more than likely you will hear strains of the "Fight Song" floating down from the athletic field. Every day this week there will be a pep rally for individual classes, and then on Friday a joint rally for all. The purpose of these rallies is to get the Spartans lungs in shape for the South vs. Palos Verdes game Friday night.

I want to see all of you Spartans out there supporting our football team and motto "Fight To Win." Let's really stomp the Sea Kings!"

LAST MAY an entirely new Pep Squad was selected and they have spent their summer practicing hard and preparing their outfits for the coming school year.

This year cheerleaders are Sandi Ernst, Kathy Kimes, Allen Spies, John Balow and Andy Nishimoto. The flags are Norma Burkus, Vicki Giff, Cindy Davoli, Meg McLeod, Jan Peterson and Mitzi Lewison. The Song Queens are Diane Barclay, Denise Byrne, Barbara Gingham, Lynn Doyle, Linda Huysen and Karen Mikkleson. The JV Cheerleaders are Sandi Walton, Nancy Gimbrone, Debbie Cello, Ginny O'Brian, and Marlene Sailer. See you next week!

Girl Scouts, Will Honor Director

A dinner honoring Mrs. G. Henry Miller, who has retired as executive director of the South Bay Council of Girl Scouts, will be held at Indian Village Thursday. Social hour is at 6:30 p.m.; dinner at 7.

Girl Scouts, past present, and community friends are invited to attend the event. Reservations are $3.75. The council asks that all reservations be sent to the South Bay Council Girl Scouts, 503 S. Catalina, Redondo Beach, by tomorrow.

Mrs. Miller began her scouting career when her daughter was seven by assuming leadership of one of the first Brownie Scout troops formed in Palos Verdes. She became a professional worker as council advisor in 1953; was appointed executive director in 1957. During her tenure, the registration of the council climbed to about 5,000 Girl Scouts.

BOTH MRS. MILLER and her husband are graduates of Redlands University, and she has done further work at the University of Southern California. They have been residents of Redondo Beach for 35 years and have lived at their present home at 155 Via Los Miradores since 1940.

The former director holds a life membership in the Parent-Teachers Association, and is an active member of the Palos Verdes-Redondo Beach Soroptimist Club.

"The development of the individual girl has always been my primary concern," said Mrs. Miller. That this indeed so will be attested to when parents, associates and other friends gather to wish her well and express thanks for work well done on behalf of the girls of this community.
