TEMPTING TO THE EYE, tempting to the palate, is this variation of Nicoise Salad, typical of the city of Nice. Vegetables and tuna combine to make this a hearty dinner salad.

Cool Dinner Salad To Please Family

Cool dinner salads are the rule on hot days any time of the year, and Nicoise Salad, a truly tempting main dish salad, is just right on a warm day. It's a French classic, and of all the variations, this particular recipe is more typical of the city of Nice.

- NICOISE SALAD
- 1 small head iceberg lettuce, quartered and torn into bite-sized pieces
 - 1 head butter lettuce, torn into bite-sized pieces
 - 2 cups cooked, cubed potatoes
 - 1 pkg. (9-oz.) French cut green beans, cooked
 - 1 can (7-oz.) white tuna, flaked
 - 1/2 green pepper, cut into strips
 - 2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
 - 16 pitted ripe olives
 - 1 small onion, thinly sliced
 - 1 medium tomato cut in 8 wedges
 - 1 pkg. garlic french dressing mix
 - 2 tbs. water
 - 1/4 cup red wine vinegar
 - 1/2 cup salad oil
 - 1 tbs. lemon juice
 - 1 tsp. seasoned salt
 - 1/4 tsp. seasoned pepper

Place lettuce in bottom of very large salad bowl. Arrange potatoes, green beans, tuna, green pepper, eggs, olives, onion, and tomato in an attractive manner on the lettuce. Combine garlic-French dressing mix and water in a screw-top, pint-sized jar. Shake well.

Add vinegar and oil and shake again.

When ready to serve the salad, toss it lightly with lemon juice, seasoned salt, seasoned pepper and garlic French dressing.

Makes 6 to 8 servings.

'Vita-Bits' New Dr. Ross Product

Newest in the myriads of pet foods on store shelves is "Vita-Bits," developed by Dr. Ross. Vita-Bits are tiny dry morsels which make their own gravy when hot water is added. Vita-Bits contain one of the most advanced formulas in animal nutrition, report the manufacturers, said to be processors of the West's largest packer of pet food. Starches in this new dry dog food are expanded under heat and pressure through a process which improves flavor and digestibility, providing a complete balance.
