

ANYONE FOR A NOSH?

Fascinated by the new cook book, filled with tried and tested recipes furnished by Temple Menouah Sisterhood members, are seated Mrs. Don Mehegan and Mrs. Sy Zimmerman. Mrs. Mehegan edited the book assisted by Mmes. Norman Roubitchek, Philip Weinstein, Dean Silbiger and Zimmerman. Featuring gourmet recipes as well as those suitable for working mothers, the books were placed on sale at the Sisterhood's membership luncheon Monday. The new board was introduced by Mrs. Alan Steen, who presented a surprise program as a ventriloquist. (Press-Herald Photo)

British Club Announces Dance

British Commonwealth and Friends Club will hold a benefit dance on Oct. 2 with all proceeds going to the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation in San Pedro.

The dance will be held at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Van Ness Ave., Torrance beginning at 8:30 p.m.

A "Western" theme has been chosen for the affair and those attending are expected to appear in costumes of the old west, otherwise the "sheriff" will be on hand to "fine" the offenders who will also "land in goal to boot."

Alex Hunter and his Gay Gordons will be playing in the old "corral."

The canteen will be open for refreshments during the evening. The committee also promises prizes and "surprises."

For tickets or additional information Mary Costello or Hugh Boyd may be called.
