RESTAURANTS TO REMEMBER

THE SIGN OF GOOD EATING . . . Is at Jody's Restaurant, located at 21180 Hawthorne Blvd., Torrance. The colorful 24-hour restaurant features the finest in steaks, seafoods and desserts. Steak specials are featured Sunday through Wednesday with steak dinners (complete) being priced under $1.50. A steak and egg breakfast can be had from 11 p.m. to 11 a.m. daily for only $1.25.

SI, SENOR . . . Is what Arnold Fertel, owner-operator of the newly opened Pancho Villa Restaurant, 5139 Calle Mayor, seems to be saying to his chef, Jose Jimenez, about their $1.29 special dinners. Five course lunches are also featured for only 79c. Phone 373-1951.

HAPPY GOURMETS . . . Mayor and Mrs. Albert Isen join Mr. and Mrs. Sam Filippone for one of the fine chuckwagon luncheons that are featured at Filippone's elegant restaurant, 4525 Calle Mayor. Banquet facilities and a choice steak menu are additional highlights to the unique restaurant.

BROKER? . . . Ernie Wong, owner of the Hing Hing Restaurant, 2526 Torrance Blvd., appeared on Channel 11 to give advice on dough. Not the baking kind, but the green kind. Ernie is an expert on the stock market.

"COMIN-UP" . . . B. A. WALKER is the chef responsible for the excellent steaks and seafoods that highlight the menu at Chuck and LaRue Quesnell's fine Bridle Path restaurant, 22252 Palos Verdes Blvd., Torrance. Fine desserts, entertainment, and choice libations are also featured.

ALL 'ROUND THE TOWN

With BOB FLOURY

ARNOLD FERTEL, the new owner of the Pancho Villa Restaurant on Calle Mayor, was telling me that about a month ago he decided on adding a little zest to his life. So in about two weeks he got a whole new set of teeth, 2) got married, 3) opened his new restaurant. I don't know if it all happened in that exact order, but I do know that all three are a thriving success . . . Here is something you won't want to miss.

JOEY'S Restaurant and nightclub on Figueroa and B Sts. in Wilmington is going to have one wing-ding of a fish fry this Thursday afternoon. Its one of those all day affairs (and probably all night). Amil Presson and his band (The Country Cousins) will be on hand for this one. So, bring along the family for some fine food and fun . . .

PAPOOSE DINNER
"Wigwam Dinners" for little braves and squaws are temptingly featured at the Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance, which also offers high chairs for papooses.

With its wide selection of dishes, the children's wigwam-shaped menu assures parents that there's ample justification in the Indian Village's slogan: "an adventure buffalo bun, milk, vegetable, potato and ice cream.

Entree favorites at the Indian Village include such "tribal" delights as Shawnee Shrimp, Cherokee Chicken, Nootka Halibut, Shoshone Salmon, Buffalo Beef Burger and Shawgashee Lobster Tail.

Plans for the October 3 "Blessing of the Grapes and Wine Festival"—one of the state's most colorful traditions. (Continued on Next Page)
