

Romance, Rings and Rice

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

OCTOBER 3, 1965

B-1

MRS. GARY L. REID
(Portrait by Seeman)

Zimprich-Reid

Miss Shirly Jean Zimprich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Charters, 1834 E. 215th St., Torrance, walked down the aisle of the Nativity Catholic Church on the arm of her father on the afternoon of Aug. 21 to plight her marriage promises with Gary L. Reid, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Newby, 808 Kornblum, Torrance.

Her wedding gown was a white silk sheath, ornamented with Swiss silk flowers. The Swiss flowers also outlined the long cathedral train. The silk illusion veil was held by a cluster of silk flowers and the bride carried a three tiered topari bouquet of Hawaiian plumeria and pom poms.

Miss Peni Lichty, honor attendant, wore an aqua georgette empire sheath. Bridesmaids, Misses Alice Fashayan, Penny Fuller, Susan Bruehl, Cecilia Fenny, Patricia Hubbard and Pam Hughs, were in mint green georgette. Flower girls were Dianne Esquivel and Judith Thornton. Ring bearers were Michael Thornton and Edward Charters.

William Ernest performed as best man and ushers were Curtis Lloyd, Robert Ieffin, Jeff Sale, Arthur Reid, Keith Comrie and Bill Campbell.

Rev. William D. Appling officiated at the double ring marriage. A reception was held at the Nativity Annex followed by a buffet dinner at the home of the bride's parents.

Following a Sequoia honeymoon, the couple is at home at 20620 Ocean Ave., Torrance.

The bride, a Bishop Montgomery High graduate, received her AA degree from Los Angeles City College. She is a member of Epsilon Delta sorority.

Her husband served three years with the United States Marine Corps and is employed by Standard Oil Co.

MRS. DENNIS GARNER
(Photography by Stanford)

Ott-Garner

Among the newlyweds making their home in Torrance are Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Paul Garner, who were married Aug. 28, in an afternoon ceremony at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection. Mrs. Garner is the former Sandra Rea Ott, daughter of Mrs. Thelma York, Huntington Beach, and Mr. George Ott, Arlington Ave., Torrance.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Garner, 2550 Pacific Coast Hwy., Torrance.

As the 100 guests assembled for the wedding, at which Rev. Martin Rygh officiated, Mrs. Norma Rygh played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Emily Steinke, soloist. Mr. Ott escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a waltz-length nylon organdy over lace, fashioned with a wide band of ruching around the hemline. Her nylon veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids encircled by white carnations.

Miss Diane Gross served as maid of honor and Miss Judy Ott, bridesmaid. They wore white lace over yellow taffeta and carried yellow carnations.

Wayne Miller stood as best man and Raymond Garner was usher. A reception was held at Skyline, 2550 Pacific Coast Hwy. The couple spent a honeymoon in Catalina.

Both are South High graduates. Mrs. Garner is employed by the Automobile Club in Los Angeles and her husband is employed by a wholesale electric company in Harbor City.

MRS. CLAUDE BUELL
(Portrait by Seeman)

Mroczo - Buell

Rev. Arthur Nagel officiated at the double-ring marriage ceremony at the First Methodist Church on Aug. 21 in which Miss Patricia Valeria Mroczo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mroczo, 2613 Highcliff Dr., Torrance, became the bride of Claude (Bill) Buell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Buell, 2138 W. 177th St., Torrance.

On the arm of her father, the bride approached the altar wearing a gown of white silk organza over satin applique with lace at the neckline, sleeves and on the full skirt. The gown was designed and made by the mother of the bridegroom. The illusion veil was held by silk organza and lace roses. White roses and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

Attendants, in pink organza gowns, were Mrs. Sandy Haslam, Mrs. Dianne Buel and Miss Carol Young.

Dave Turcot performed the best man duties and ushers were Kim Buell and Larry Sepulveda.

A reception was held in the church patio and the newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Santa Barbara.

The new address is 2914 Rogers Court, Anaheim.

The bride, a South High graduate, attended El Camino College. Her husband, a graduate of North High and El Camino, is now attending California State at Long Beach.

MRS. THOMAS E. ARMES
(Portrait by Seeman)

MRS. JOSEPH ROBINSON

Huss - Robinson

Following a Yosemite honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robinson, Jr., who were married in late August in an afternoon ceremony at the St. Catherine Laboure Church, are now at home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Robinson is the former Joanne Huss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Huss, 17420 Elgar Ave., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robinson, Gardena.

In a full length gown of white peau de soie and lace fashioned with a train and trimmed with pearls, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her bridal veil was held by a lace and pearl petal headpiece and she carried white roses and stephanotis.

Attendants, in pink, were Misses Toni White, Karen Rowe, Dee Reese, JoAnn Crouch, Marleena McGuire was flower girl.

William Day stood as best man and ushers were Jim Woods, John Crouch and Neil Johnson.

Rev. T. Infuhr officiated at the marriage as Miss Mary Hanf played the nuptial music.

The 200 guests attended a buffet luncheon at the Alondra Club.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of North High and her husband was graduated from Gardena High in 1962.

Lundeen - Armes

At an 11 o'clock nuptial mass and ceremony at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita on Aug. 28, Miss Suzanne Brooke Lundeen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Lundeen, 26323 Alta Vista, Harbor City, became the bride of Thomas Eugene Armes. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Armes, also of Harbor City.

Gowned in a floor length silk organza creation enhanced with lace and aurora borealis sequins, the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. Her bouffant shoulder-length veil was held by a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of tiny white roses and lilies-of-the-valley interspersed with ivy leaves.

The bridal entourage consisted of Miss Kathleen Crockett, maid of honor; Misses Irene Baradas, Bonnie Armes and Mrs. Larry Scott, bridesmaids. They wore long pink silk organza gowns and carried nosegays of pink roses, carnations and fern.

Erin Fitzgerald, in a long white organza dress, served her cousin as flower girl.

Michael Madden was best man and ushers were William Young, Gordon Garrett, and Robert Drury.

Rev. William Gorman officiated at the mass and ceremony. Mrs. Dorothy Crotty, organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Miss Betty Lou Kautto, soloist.

Mrs. Charles Sell registered the guests at the reception and luncheon held at the Board of Realtors Hall in Torrance. The honeymoon was spent at Mission Inn in Riverside and the couple is living at 25925 Viana, Lomita.

The bride is a graduate of Marymount High School and is a senior at Marymount College. She will continue her education and will be graduated in January.

Her husband, a graduate of Serra High, is in his senior year at Long Beach State College. He is employed by Alcoa Aluminum in Los Angeles.

FORMAL RITES MARK CDA INITIATION

Many distinguished guests, including grand regents of neighboring CDA Courts, attended the reception given by the Court St. Catherine honoring nine new members. Pictured are, from left, Mrs. James Elliott, Miss Kathryn Shaughnessy,

Mmes. Paul Rafter, district deputy, Charles Butterfield, grand regent; Dale Thompson and Richard Tracy. Back row, Mmes. Victor Spielman, Paul DeCuir, Joseph Martina, Dominic Incorvia, and Martin Lydon. (Photography by Stanford)

Reception for New CDA Members

Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, welcomed nine new members at a formal reception held recently at the Nativity Parish Annex with Mrs. Charles Butterfield presiding, assisted by Mrs. Paul Rafter, district deputy.

New members include Miss Kathryn Shaughnessy, Mmes. Paul DeCuir, Henry Dale Thompson, Richard Tracy, Martin Lydon, Victor Spielman, Joseph Martina, Dominic Incorvia and James Elliott.

Responsible for applications of new members was Mrs. John McVey, court chairman of extension.

The officers of the court, all in floor length white formal, presented an impressive candle-light ceremony telling the aim and purpose of the Catholic Daughters of America.

Mrs. Gordon Hicks, court lecturer, with the assistance of Mmes. Paul McDonald, Richard Ban and Robert Klaesges, presented a seminar telling of the life of St. Joseph.

Mrs. Michael Blasco spoke briefly on "Patriotism" after which the color guard, Mmes. J. W. Crew, Laurence Derouin and Howard Owen came forward and the entire assembly joined in the pledge to the Cross, salute to the flag and the National Anthem.

The final degree ceremony concluded with each new member being presented with a cross and crown lapel pin, the official insignia of the order, by Mrs. Charles Butterfield, grand regent.

Music for the ceremonies was furnished by Mrs. Harry Hamilton, court organist.

The guest book was handled by Mmes. J. W. Crew and Laurence Derouin. Presiding at the silver service were Mmes. Wilma Lewis, Laurence Derouin, Paul Rafter and Charles Butterfield.

Hostesses for the formal affair were Mmes. Robert Klaesges, Robert Aguilar, co-chairmen, assisted by Mmes. Richard Ban, Nick Fuscardo, Marguerite Sharpless, Ray Montenegro, Thelma McGarry, Leonard Young, Paul Labon-ski, Louie Derouin, J. W. Crew, Regina Cunningham, and Misses Kathryn and Felice Shaughnessy.