

Teachers Back From Institutes

Eight Torrance teachers returned recently from summer institutes they attended on scholarships and grants.

Elementary teachers who received summer awards were Miss Mary Knopf of Towers Schools, who won a grant to study special education at Los Angeles State College, and Melton Jordan of Madrona School who was awarded a National Defense Education Act scholarship in teaching Spanish at Claremont College.

High school teachers included: Morgan McSweeney of West High School, who attended an NDEA English Institute at Fullerton College; David Roderick of Torrance High, who studied modern chemistry at Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio under a National Science Foundation Grant, and Mrs. Dixie Roy of Torrance High School, who studied at a University of Nevada NDEA summer language institute.

ARROW OF LIGHT awards were presented to Steven Kleinbower, Robert Higley, and Robert Elliott by Cubmaster Posner.

John Prentiss and James Franco were inducted into the Webelos Den by leaders Len Griffin and Earl Kleinbower. Robert Higley was inducted into Boy Scout Troop 730 by assistant Scout leader Roger Schroeder.

Realtors To Elect Officers

Members of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors will ballot Friday from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. for new officers.

All Class A and B members and Class C members who meet the one year requirements are eligible to vote for new officers, according to Albert Z. England, president of the board.

Realtors Roy Hollomon and Charles Pecora are running for the board's top elective post. Candidates for first vice president are George Hanback and Geneva Meara.

Mel Hanberg, Saul Levine, and Larry Poeske are candidates for second vice president, while Bob Schloeder and Irene Vesco have been nominated for third vice president.

Jim Clauson and Jack Schmidt are candidates for treasurer and the candidates for secretary are Alvin Grancell and Mary Toombs.

Fourteen realtors have been nominated for seats on the board of directors.

To Assume New Duties

The appointment of Mrs. Lucille M. Chitwood of Manhattan Beach as librarian in charge of the North Torrance library has been announced by George Kurt, chairman of the Torrance Library Commission.

The appointment was made in accordance with the county library's policy recommendation that professional librarians be assigned to all library service outlets where circulation justifies the assignment.

Mrs. Chitwood is graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles, where she received her bachelor's degree. She completed her professional training in librarianship at the University of Southern California where she earned a master's degree.

She has had extensive professional experience with the Los Angeles County Public Library system, having worked as an aide at the Manhattan Beach Library for six years.
