TENSE MOMENT . . . Margaret Middleton and Martin Laer go through a tense moment in Chapel Theatre's "Invitation to a March," now in its final week at the theater.

HAPPY TWOSOME . . . Arnold Fertel and his wife, Barbara, are very pleased with the success of their all-new Pancho Villa Restaurant, located at 5139 Calle Mayor, Torrance. Low prices and charming atmosphere make it a popular spot for food and fun.

SUCCESSFUL DUO . . . Are Gary and Carlene Knox, who have made their Margaritas Restaurant on Torrance Boulevard one of the most successful Mexican Restaurants in the Southland. Phone 371-5255 for a great experience in Mexican dining.

GOOD THINGS AHEAD
The comedy team of Bob Nelson and Artie Palmer have proved their popularity during their two shows nightly in the Barbary Coast Room of the Mariner Hotel in Lomita, so bosses Cindy and Johnnie Pappas have held the Nelson-Palmer team over through Oct. 10. On Tuesday, Oct. 12, pretty Kitty Kover and her group open a nine day engagement that will close Oct. 21. On October 22, Paul New and his crew, six sensational entertainers, will open and play through Nov. 7. Johnnie and Cindy, who are making a real success out of the Barbary Coast Room, are determined to present to the South Bay area the best in lounge entertainment, to go along with their idea of the best in cuisine. The Bar-

... nightly, and business is booming. . . .
A NEW SOUP
How! Another kind of tribal greeting at the Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance is the newly introduced, uniquely different luncheon treat — Bloody Mary Soup.
Before you reply, "How's that?," order it and see for yourself why it's catching-on with business men with little time for a complete luncheon.

Bloody Mary Soup is a tureen of steaming, tangy tomato bouillon spiked with vodka and served with dips 'n' chips. In what other polished center of epicurean pleasures but the Indian Village Restaurant can you find anything so unusual for lunch?
Oil paintings, water colors, collages, pen-and-inks and all kinds of sculpture have been thrilling thousands of visitors each Sunday at the Hollywood Bowl Art Mart.
Extending along historic Pepper Tree Lane from Highland Avenue to the soundshell of the majestic amphitheater—famous for "Symphonies Under the Stars"—literally thousands of paintings have been goggled at by swarms of visitors each Sunday from 10 a.m. to dusk, and will continue to be so on Sundays through October. Whole families with tots for three Sundays numbered 151 painters, printmakers and sculptors. Nearly 4,000 spectators attended last Sunday. Admission and parking are free.

The Hollywood Bowl Art Mart is staged by the Hollywood Bowl Association and Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation. "Since we already have 150 planned for bringing an exhibit," said Art Mart Coordinator Ed Gamewell of the County Department of Parks and Recreation.
Artists and craftsmen should contact Art Mart Coordinator Gamewell at Richmond 9-6911, extension 553 for further entry information.
