MRS. HOWARD I. SMALL
(Art's Photography)

Baer-Small Vows Read

At home in Pomona are Mr. and Mrs. Ira Small, who were married at the Christ Episcopal Church in Redondo, and who have been living for the past month in Oceanside until Mr. Small completed his tour of duty with the United States Marine Corps.

Mrs. Small is the former Maxine Maria Baer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Baer, 23818 Anza Ave., Torrance. Mrs. Miriam Getz of New York City is the mother of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight empire sheath organza gown fashioned with a train. A flat floral headpiece held her veil and she carried orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Rebecca Goldstein, in blue chiffon, was maid of honor.

Alfred P. Cattabianni was best man and ushers were John Baer and Arnold Silverman. Kurt Kennel carried the rings.

Rev. C. Lee Mills officiated at the marriage which was followed by a buffet reception at Caesar's Supper Club.

The bride was graduated from South High and El Camino College where she was a member of Kappa Eta Gamma.

Her husband was educated in New York and has enrolled at Mount San Antonio College to earn his Commercial Pilot's License.

Hi-Neighbors Plan Luncheon

Plans for a luncheon were completed at the first meeting of the Hi-Neighbor Club of Torrance which took place in the home of Mrs. Richard L. Fleming with Mrs. Alton Nigh as co-hostess. The luncheon which will be held at the home of Mrs. Alton Nigh, 2006 W. 180th St., Torrance, on Oct. 18, will feature a floor show and door prize.

Named Chairman

Miss Linda Bolstad, student affairs president, has been named as the chairman of the Marymount College Public Relations Laboratory, which consists of upperclass journalism students.

MRS. DONALD HOLBROOK
(Art's Photography)

Couple Living in Pomona

Miss Loretta Linderman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Linderman, 22322 Kent Ave., walked down the aisle of the First Methodist Church in Torrance, on the arm of her father, at one o'clock on Sept. 5 to plight her marriage promises with Donald Holbrook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holbrook of Pomona.

The bridal gown was of white peau de soie and lace fashioned with a detachable train. A lace petal headpiece secured her full short veil and she carried a cascade of roses centered by white orchids.

Mrs. Robert Searles served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore a lime green sheath. Bridesmaids, also in lime green sheaths, were Mmes. Michael Linderman, Robert Stout, Wayne Moses and Miss Karen Williams.

Wayne Moses stood as best man and ushers were Michael Linderman, Ken Kackis, Robert Searles and Howard Teitelbaum.

Following the double ring marriage service, the 200 guests greeted the newly weds at a reception in the church hall.

The new home is in Pomona.

The bride, a 1963 graduate of Torrance High School, is a senior at Cal Poly at Pomona working on her teaching degree.

Her husband, a graduate of Pomona High and Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo, is teaching at the Puente High School.

Membership Party Given By Officers
