TV Actor To Appear At Fiesta

A new dimension was added to the upcoming Fishermen's Fiesta next Thursday through Sunday at the Port of Los Angeles with the naming of television star Mark Miller as honorary purse seine fisherman for the event.

Miller will be right at home with the members of Los Angeles' commercial fleet. He was once a commercial fisherman himself, working on a shrimp boat in Texas waters.

He is co-star of the new NBC series, "Please Don't Eat the Daisies."

The versatile actor, who landed his current starring role only after he added a trace of gray to his hair for the benefit of casting directors, has starred in the "Guestward Ho!" and "General Hospital" series and has appeared on "Studio One," "Armstrong Circle Playhouse," "Omnibus," "Hitchcock Presents" and "Gunsmoke."

Highlight of Sunday festivities at the Fishermen's Fiesta will be the traditional boat parade.

HEAP FRIENDLY . . . Gwynne Smith is given a wigwam-shaped children's menu by Chief Sundown and Princess Snowfl over as they greet diners at the Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance. True descendants of Geronimo and Cochise, they also perform authentic rain dances Friday and Sunday nights in the tribal "Fountain Room."

SWEETEST DAY
Restaurateurs will join the growing list of Southern California enthusiasts in celebrating a new national holiday known as "Sweetest Day" and this year celebrated on Saturday.

"Sweetest Day" was launched on the west coast for the first time in 1963 with such success that there is now little doubt that this brand new gift giving occasion has become permanently endeared to the populace.

Although originally started more than 40 years ago in Cleveland by a man who believed his city's orphans and shut-ins were too often forgotten and neglected, it soon spread throughout the country as "A Day To Make Someone Happy."

Remembrances of any type—jewelry, flowers, candy, any gift at all—were suitable thank you symbols given by people to friends, relatives, even complete strangers, as their way of spreading cheer for past kind acts and deeds. In Los Angeles for the past two years, community minded businessmen have donated toys and other gifts to entire pediatric wards of local hospitals.
