TEEN SCENE . . . "The Baymen" (top), who will appear Saturday at the Teen Scene, and "The Travelers," who appeared last week at the Teen Scene, take time out from rehearsals. Baymen are Buzzy Carre (front), Sterling Storm, John Anderson, and Tim Boyer. The Dot recording artists won the July Battle of the Bands and are scheduled to appear on two television productions soon. The Travelers, from left, Joe Robinson, Dan Hoelt, John Sutch, and Don Landison, won the Teen Scene band battle Oct. 8.

Night Scenes
Damon Runyon's Broadway, home of big-and little-shot gamblers, Salvation Army proselytizers, night club entertainers, and a sundry variety of jerks and eccentrics, came to full life Tuesday at the new Caroussel Theatre in West Covina, when "Guys and Dolls" opened its three-week run.
Dan Dailey and Marilyn Maxwell are starred. Dan plays Sky Masterson, happy-go-lucky sport, and the lovely Marilyn portrays Miss Adelaide, the marriage-hungry torch singer.
Lew Parker, Ben Lessy, Jack De Lon and Slapsy Maxie Rosenbloom could easily meet Runyon's casting specifications as gambler Nathan Detroit, race track tout Benny Southstreet, would-be-big-shot Nicely, Nicely Johnson and Big Jule, strong arm man and general errand boy.
Dario Cassini, noted Southland tenor, has joined the "Opera Cabaret" group at La Strada restaurant at 3000 Los Feliz Blvd., reports Carmelo Manto, owner.
"Dario is one of the most

YOUNG SINGER . . . Johnny Mathis will appear at El Camino College tomorrow night in concert with "Our Young Generation." He is noted for his lyrical styling of modern love ballads.

talented opera entertainers in Southern California, and he will add even more enjoyment to this unusual nightly opera show.
More than 175 box offices are now open for the S. Francisco Opera's premiere engagement in The Pavilion of the Music Center.
Tickets are available at The Music Center box office, all offices of the Automobile Club of Southern California, the Southern California Music Co., and all mutual agencies.
The San Francisco company's Los Angeles season, which includes 21 performances of 14 operas, will open Nov. 5 with a new production of Verdi's "Un Ballo in Maschera" and will continue through Nov. 28.
Joseph Wiseman will recreate the role of Doctor LeDuc in Arthur Miller's "Incident at Vichy" when the James A. Doolittle production opens on Oct. 25 at the
