Pioneer Football Title at Stake

By JERRY REYNOLDS
 Press-Herald Staff Writer
 "Well, can I go to the Palos Verdes game Friday night?"

That isn't the usual reaction of a woman who has just given birth to a 7½-pound son.

But Mrs. Fred Peterson isn't a usual woman. She's the wife of West High football coach Fred Peterson and the team's No. 1 booster. Mrs. Peterson's first words after the birth of David Lawrence Peterson Sunday are indicative of how most area football fans feel about the Friday contest between Palos Verdes and West High, which, by the way, will be played at West High at 8 p.m.

Both teams carry perfect 4-0 records into the fray. Most people who know the Pioneer League will concede the winner has the inside track to the league crown and the CIF playoff bid that goes with it.

West has handily defeated Rolling Hills (32-14), Torrance (21-0), Bell Gardens (42-0), and Beverly Hills (40-13) behind the quarterbacking of Senior Ron Norman and a talented backfield which features Paul Gadbois and Fred Schwanbeck. Gadbois carried 58 times in the four games for 363 yards—an average of 6.3 yards per carry. Schwanbeck, handed the football 38 times, has gained 240 yards for the same 6.3 average.

Norman, an underweight senior who likes to throw, has completed 28 of 48 passes for 349 yards and a 58 per cent average.

The West backfield is completed by any one of four players — halfbacks Jim Barnes, Joel Hons, and Bill DeWaide, and fullback Gary Singleton.

While the Warrior offense is built around half-a-dozen top backs, Palos Verdes has built its attack around one man—Bill Tapp.

Tapp, a 180-pound senior tailback, has led the Sea Kings to wins against South (7-6), Leuzinger (22-6), Rolling Hills (28-7), and Morningside (7-0). He's the leading scorer in the area, with six TDs and eight conversions for 44 points.

But Tapp is not Coach Ron Terry's only potent weapon. When Tapp doesn't get the football, it usually goes to Gary Bilotti, a senior fullback who also checks in at 180 pounds.

And Lloyd Miller, another 180-pound senior, has performed well as a ball carrier, blocking back, and defensive back.

Says West Coach Peterson of Bilotti and Miller: "They'd be stars in their own right if they weren't in the same backfield with Tapp."

The Sea Kings are run by QB Jack Levy. Their ground game is most powerful, but Levy can—and does—throw. Defensive tactics may be the key to Friday's contest. Peterson will have to contain Tapp and Bilotti and he'll have to contend with a strong Palos Verdes pass defense. Pass defense has been the key to much of the Sea King success this season.

It all points toward what some people already have dubbed the area's "game of the year."

In two other Pioneer League openers, Lennox will travel to Aviation and another pair of title contenders, El Segundo and Lawndale, will face off at Lawndale. All action is under the lights.

UCLA COACH TO SPEAK AT LUNCHEON

Jerry Long, assistant coach at UCLA, will be speaker at the South Bay Athletic Club's football luncheon at 12:15 p.m. Friday at the Plush Horse Restaurant.

The "bull session" goes on until 1:30 with latest information made available concerning high school, junior college, collegiate and professional football.

Speakers last week were George McFadden of San Francisco 49ers, Scrappy Rhea of Harbor JC, Ken Swearingen of El Camino, and high school coaches Fred Peterson, Pete Austin and Don Hay.

There is no dues. Luncheon is $2.50. A club football selection contest is held weekly.

Bishop Faces Crespi

"Crespi is a good, good team, there's no doubt about it!" exclaimed Bishop Montgomery coach George Swade, as he put his team through a midweek drill in preparation for their Camino Real League classic game Friday night at Encino.

A 14-13 loser to Fermin Lasuen for the conference title a year ago, Crespi is loaded with the same, more experienced talent this year. The Celts have already won four convincing non-league games with 18 touchdowns.

John Smith and Brian Porter are returning all-league backs from Crespi. Porter was named the outstanding player in the conference a year ago.

A polished quarterback for Crespi is Steve Hilbert. He has directed the Celts to wins over Villanova, 41-6; Mt. Carmel, 20-6; Verbum Dei, 47-12; and Alemany, 13-0.

Last year's Crespi win over Bishop Montgomery was 34-0 to close out the season.

Missing from Montgomery's squad Friday will be tackle Mike McClain and line-backer Charley Reade.

Back Ed Gilles returned to action last week and Bob Comstock is due back next week for the Knights.

Montgomery's unbeaten four-victory slate focuses attention on the quarterbacking of Danny Graham, the running of Gary Nesenson, Dave Moseley and Chuck Bongard, and a top defensive effort by the entire squad which has limited the opposition to three touchdowns.

Culver City To Invade Tartarville

Torrance High will be at full strength for its Sky League opener against Culver City Friday night at the Torrance Stadium.

Coach John Trantham announced Jim Kline would be able to play at wingback, Ron Michaelson is ready at tackle, and Doug Kelsey and Steve Hull are ready despite recuperating broken fingers.

Coach Trantham also announced Bill Bynum would be given a chance to run the offense at quarterback. Mark Hornbeck moves into the starting backfield at wingback. Rick Faeth and Terry Tiedeman are the halves.

The Tartars are winless in four non-league games.

The expected order of finish in the Sky League is Leuzinger, first; Culver City, second; Rolling Hills, third; Torrance, fourth; Beverly Hills, fifth, and Morningside, sixth.

Culver City depends on speed for its offense. Brian Donsley ran 80 yards for a touchdown against El Segundo last week. Culver had a 14-0 lead, but eventually got beat, 21-14, in the game.

North High

North High drew a bye in the Bay League football schedule this week and will not have a game.

The Saxons will go to Hawthorne for their next games Friday night of Oct. 29.

Torrance Soccer League To Begin Season Sunday

The American Youth Soccer Association (South Section) will open the 1965-66 season Saturday at Jefferson School Grounds, Carson and Talsman, Torrance, with two games scheduled.

The Panthers, winners of last year's league competition (coached by Gordon Watt, and Willie Carson) will oppose the Blue Jets, a new addition to the league coached by Lolek Jasinski and Frank Pisciotta. The opener is 1 p.m.

In the main event at 2:15 p.m., the Bulldogs coached by Stanley Drysdale and Gregg Madden will go against the Hornets coached by Andy Keir and Roy Milne.

The Firefighters and the Comets, another newcomer to the league received a bye.

Outstanding players from last season playing this season are Stanley Drysdale, Jr., Steve Thomas, Robert Wells (Bulldogs); Danny Kay, Steg-fried Schmidts, Keith Wattamanuk (Firefighters); John Briscoe, Joe Gerard, Marine Cano (Panthers); and Steve Lash, Mark Morrow (Hornets).

El Camino Goes to East L.A.

El Camino, once-beaten and once-tied, travels to East Los Angeles for its third Metropolitan Conference football game Friday night.

Last Saturday the Warriors were beaten by unbeaten Cerritos, 27-21. El Camino's Cary Hubert put on a passing show in vain as Cerritos held on to win a key battle at El Camino. Besides carrying the ball 13 times, Hubert went to the air on 41 occasions.

Paul Jones Holds Lead

Headed by Paul Jones of Torrance, Bob Hogle of Buena Park, and Hal Minyard of Crestline, a fifty car field is set for this Saturday night's annual 100 lap CRA Sprint Car Grand Prix at Gardena's Ascot Park.

An eight event racing program starts at 8:30 p.m., preceded by qualifying runs at 7 p.m.

Jones, younger brother of Indianapolis winner Parnelli Jones, is the point lead in the races for the 1965 California Racing Association driving championship. He will drive the Bruce Bromme, 270 Offenhauser special from Gardena in which he has scored two CRA feature wins this year.

Out to stop him will be Hogle, 1963 CPA title holder and Minyard, defending CRA champion. Both will be driving Chevrolet powered cars in the night's 100 lap main event.

Jones finished second in his last outing at Ascot, two weeks ago, giving him a 65 point lead in the battle for the 1965 driving title.

Joining him Saturday night will be several other local drivers including Jack Brunner, Phil Bradley, and Howard Millican of Gardena; Bob George of Redondo Beach; and Bob Dorcy of Lawndale.
