

Curtain Rises on 'Hello Follies'

Brides of the Future

Verburg - Johnson

Mrs. Clara E. Verburg, 2059 W. Artesia Blvd., announces the engagement and wedding plans of her daughter, Patty Brigitta, and Kenneth Edward Johnson of Paso Robles.

The marriage will take place at 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 20, at the Plymouth Congregational Church in Paso Robles.

The future bride, daughter of the late Mr. William Verburg, who founded the Verburg Dairy on Artesia more than 30 years ago, was graduated from North High School and El Camino College. Miss Verburg spent a year in Europe, during which she studied at the Austrian Bundes Sportschule in Obertraun, serving as assistant to the director.

Returning from Europe, she has been assisting her mother with the management of the Verburg Dairy, and the development of the 200-unit apartment, Verburg Garden Apts., on Artesia. She is also superintendent of the 541 acre Verburg Ranch in Paso Robles.

Her fiancé, a third generation Paso Robles resident, is a graduate of the Spartan School of Aeronautics in Tulsa, Okla. He served for two years in the far east with the United States Navy. Mr. Johnson, who owns a real estate firm in Paso Robles as well as walnut and almond orchards, is active in civic organizations.

Following the wedding, the 250 guests will be entertained at a dinner party at the Madonna Inn in San Luis Obispo.

Returning from a honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Paso Robles.

PATTY VERBURG

Johnson - Coyne

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johnson of Torrance announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol, to Patrick Coyne.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coyne of Lomita.

Nativity Catholic Church is to be the setting for the Jan. 29, 1966 nuptial rites.

Miss Johnson attended Torrance High School and is presently working toward her A.A. degree in nursing at El Camino College.

Her fiancé, also a graduate of Torrance High, is employed with Owen Roofing Co.

CAROL JOHNSON

Crow - Frederick

A party attended by family and friends was held to announce the engagement of Chalene V. Crow of Torrance to Gary L. Frederick of Wilmington.

The bride-elect, daughter of the Leroy Crows of Torrance, was graduated from Lynwood Academy, attended Harbor College, and is completing a dental assistant course.

Gary is in the insurance business with his father. He attended Harbor College and the University of Ohio.

A May wedding is planned.

CHALENE CROW

Conn - Lederer

Planning a November wedding are Miss Nadine Lee Conn of Torrance and Staff Sergeant Lawrence Lederer of Laurelton, New York.

The betrothal and approaching marriage of their daughter is announced today by Mr. and Mrs. Troy V. Conn of Torrance.

The future bride is a graduate of North High School and the Flavio Beauty College.

Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Margaret Lederer of Laurelton, New York, is stationed at Edwards Air Force Base.

NADINE CONN

SCENES OF LONG, LONG AGO

Posing for the bygone tintype formal wedding picture, a phase of the Hello Follies to be presented by Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, are three brides in wedding gowns of yesteryear, pictured with their handsome bridegrooms. Brides are, from left, Sally Schmidt in an 1850 creation, Judy Melville in a 1920 high fashion gown and

Joan George as a bride of 1860. With hat on arm and looking straight at the camera are the grooms, from left, Murray Rubin and George Bryen. Torrance High School auditorium will be the setting for the two-night run of the benefit performances with curtain raised for 8:30 both Friday and Saturday evenings. (Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

OCTOBER 27, 1965

B-1

City of Hope Chapter's

Festival of Fashion

Torrance Chapter City of Hope will entertain members and guests at a "Festival of Fashion" tomorrow afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd.

Mrs. Edward Schwartz is serving as moderator of the show and will describe the new fashions furnished by a local shop.

Admission is by invitation only. However, Mrs. Samuel Maiten announces that several invitations are still available and anyone interested in attending may call her.

Mrs. Bert Lynn is in charge of decorations, which will carry out the fall theme. She is being assisted by Mrs. Frank Sciarrotta.

Mrs. Lee Arensmyer and Mrs. Harry Mandel are in charge of refreshments.

COLORFUL AUTUMN SETTING

Myriads of rich fall colors will predominate the background for the City of Hope's "Fashion Festival" tomorrow afternoon at the Torrance Recreation Center. Using artistic talents in working out the decor are, from left, Mmes. Bert Lynn, decorations chairman; Frank Sciarrotta, committee member, and Jerome Scharfman, president. (Press-Herald Photo)

MR., MRS. HARLEY NEWMAN

... On Golden Wedding Day (Press-Herald Photo)

Newmans Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Harley A. Newman, 732 Gramercy Ave. were honored at an Open House on Sunday, Oct. 10 at their home in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The party was given by their two sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Marion H. Newman of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Newman of Toppenish, Wash.

Also on hand for the celebration were the couple's six grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman were married Oct. 11, 1915 in Niles, Okla. They came to Torrance in 1936, where Mr. Newman was employed by Columbia Steel until his retirement in 1963. Mrs. Newman was employed at the Gay Shop for many years, retiring when the shop closed in 1962.

Approximately 75 guests called to congratulate the couple. A tiered gold and white anniversary cake centered the table from which refreshments were served.

On this anniversary date, the celebrants received telephone calls from Oklahoma, Texas and Washington.

Among the guests attending were sisters, Mrs. Lorene Hermes and Mrs. Luster Smith of Bellville, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, of San Jose.