For the Children

Pumpkin Contest Set

Youngsters, who have fun making grotesque faces out of pumpkins, will be able to vie for prizes this Halloween at the Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance, which is holding its second annual "Pumpkin Carving Contest" in the Fountain Room.

So successful was last year's Halloween contest, it was decided by manager Mrs. Virginia Smith Haack to re-stage it as an annual event.

Competition in two categories is open to all children. They may enter with the "Ugliest" and/or the "Happiest" Indian-faced pumpkin head. Deadline is Saturday, Oct. 30, when carved pumpkins must be brought to the Indian Village Restaurant before noon for the judging.

Winners will be announced the following day, Sunday. All of the entries are to be displayed in the Fountain Room, stated Mrs. Haack.
