

American Field Service Slates Pancake Breakfast at Mira Costa

Redondo Beach policeman Joseph Norris, a 10-year veteran of the department, has been named to head the major annual fund raising drive for the South Bay Chapter of the American Field Service. Officer Norris said the annual project, a pancake breakfast, will be held at Mira Costa High School from 7 a.m. until 1 p.m. Oct. 31. Proceeds from the breakfast will be used to bring six exchange students to the South Bay Union High School District next year, Norris said.

Norris and his family hosted Walter Bar of Switzerland last year. Bar attended Redondo Union High School during the year. SIX EXCHANGE students now attending classes at the three South Bay high schools will greet area residents at the breakfast. On hand will be Tamara Magalotti of Italy, who is living with the Harold Loomis family in Manhattan Beach while attending Aviation High, and Susan Hoare of England, who resides with the John Bartos family in Manhattan Beach, is attending Mira Costa High.

Students from Redondo High who will attend the breakfast include Chiyo Nishida of Japan and Ricardo Abecassis of Argentina. Nishida is living with the Robert Griffin family in Redondo Beach and Abecassis is living with the Jack C. Riddle family in Hermosa Beach.

CANCER GRANT

A clinical fellowship of $3,600 has been awarded to James J. Patton for study at Harbor General Hospital by the American Cancer Society. The postgraduate fellowship is designed to equip doctors to be of greater service to patients and medical institutions through a more highly developed knowledge and ability in the cancer field.

OTHER STUDENTS on hand for the breakfast will include Bert Sundberg of Sweden and Pablo Barquero of Costa Rica. Sundberg is attending Mira Costa and living with the Wendell Harter family in Manhattan Beach. Barquero, a student at Mira Costa, is residing with the Joseph Bertrand family in Manhattan Beach. American exchange students Tim Holton, Tony Let-
