HONORED... Army S/Sgt. Carl J. Armagost, right, son of Mrs. Hannah M. Armagost, 719 Amapola Ave., receives a Certificate of Achievement from Col. E. M. Shaffer, acting adjutant general, U.S. Continental Army Command, during ceremonies at Ft. Monroe, Va. Armagost received the award for his performance of duties as a supply sergeant in the command's Headquarters Company.

Armed Forces

Airman 3/c Thomas W. Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Sharp of 806 Serpentine St., Redondo Beach, has been graduated from the technical training course for new members of the U.S. Air Force Medical Service at Gunter AFB, Ala.

Airman Sharp, who studied basic hospital procedures and emergency medical treatment, has been selected for assignment to one of the more than 250 installations world-wide where Air Force combat and support units are based.

The airman, a graduate of Redondo Union High School, attended El Camino College.

Second Lt. Austin Dias, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dias, 20023 Hawthorne Ave., completed a nine-week infantry officer basic course at the Army Infantry School, Ft. Benning, Ga., Oct. 12.

During the course Lt. Dias received instruction in military leadership responsibilities, map and aerial photograph reading, tactics of small infantry units and Army administrative procedures.

The lieutenant was graduated from Leuzinger High School, Lawndale, in 1959 and received his bachelor of arts degree in 1963 and his master's degree in 1965 from the University of California, Santa Barbara.

Marine L/Cpl. Thomas G. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Taylor of 18131 Gramercy Place, is serving with the 3rd Battalion, 4th Marine Regiment, Joint Action Company in the Hue/Phu Bai sector of Viet Nam.

The 3rd Battalion is the northernmost unit of the 3rd Marine Division in South Viet Nam.

The company acts as teachers/advisors, instructing Vietnamese Popular Forces.

Only select Marines are chosen for the company. They are judged on their intelligence, ability to react quickly to any given situation and for their knowledge of tactics and general military subjects.

The company lives in the Phu Bai area villages and protects some 16,000 civilians.

HONOR MAN... Navyman Richard T. Thorne, son of Mrs. Bertha J. Wilney of 4705 Darien St., has been awarded the "Honor Man" title at Builder School, U.S. Naval Schools, Construction, at Port Huene, Calif. He is a graduate of El Camino College.

MORE TRAINING... Airman Dennis J. Welsh, son of Mrs. Virginia M. Welsh of 2504 Aviation Blvd., Redondo Beach, has been selected for training as a communications-electronics specialist at Keesler AFB, Miss. The airman's father, John B. Welsh Jr., lives in Huntington Beach.

Midshipman I.C. Walter J. Fritschner, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Fritschner of 5333 Highgrove St., has been named to the Superintendent's List for the first semester at the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis.

To be selected for the Superintendent's List he had to have a B average with no individual grade lower than C in academic subjects and an aptitude mark and conduct mark of B and a satisfactory status in physical education.

Thirty-one per cent of the 4,000 midshipmen are now on the Superintendent's List.
