Way of Life

Mother to Many Works Full Day

Being a mother is a 24-hour-a-day proposition especially if you are responsible for more than 60 people. Mrs. Shirley McGill, director of nurses at Royalwood Convalescent Hospital in Torrance, has to care for more than 60 patients and it's a full-time job.

"Good nursing care and feeding are important because many of the patients have special demands that need to be met if they are to be part of the happy family here," she said.

Understanding and patience are two requirements that Mrs. McGill is called upon to put to use every day at the hospital. "They must be cared for as if they're your mother or father. Often the patients have no relatives or friends to converse with, so the nurse is asked to be a 'good friend,'" she said.

THE PATIENT needs more than a friendly ear because

Emblem Honors Service

A 35-year service award emblem was presented to Lee A. Webb, construction foreman for General Telephone Co.'s South Bay division.

Webb, who resides with his wife, Lorene, at 4321 Calle Mayor, began his career with the telephone company in Santa Monica and holds the record for having the most children working for General. His son James is northern area personnel administrator, with offices in Santa Monica; Robert is a PBX installer in Redondo Beach; Joseph is a switchman in the Sunland-Tujunga exchange; daughter Lucy is employed as a service observer in Santa Monica, while Irene is a customer representative in Redondo Beach.

Webb can also claim his daughter-in-law, Doreen, who is married to his son, James, as a member of the family "telephone team." She works as a communications service supervisor in Santa Monica.

they have numerous problems that must be thought out and the nurse provides guidance that is vitally needed, according to Mrs. McGill.

The mother of two has had vast experience in the nursing field. She attended nursing school at Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital and after graduation she spent three years as an office nurse for a Glendale physician. Here, she gained valuable knowledge in both medical skills and in human relations. Mrs. McGill pointed out that she had great personal contact with the patients and this work was able to help her later on when she moved into a supervisory capacity.

BEFORE COMING to Royalwood in June, 1965 (when the doors were first opened), Mrs. McGill was director of nurses at the Fairmont Convalescent for 13 months.

In her present job Mrs. McGill is required to set up procedures, scheduling, meetings, administrative work, interviewing, hiring, orientation, supplies and helping with the nurses wherever she can be of service.

Nursing is a never-ending process, and Mrs. McGill is on call every hour of every day—it's not just a job, but a way of life.
