Assignment TV

By TERRENCE O'FLAHERTY

The television industry feels that it takes a full month before the average American family settles down to its viewing habits. Here's a last minute check list of new programs.

THE CROAK and Dagger category is awash with new recruits, notably "I Spy," wherein two secret agents pose as a tennis champ and his Negro manager. Espionage versus the NAACP. Espionage wins.

"Get Smart" or Spies Can Be Funny. A spoof of a spoof of a spoof.

"The Wild Wild West" super-spy comedy straight by a humorless hero, circa 1870. President Grant has all the laugh lines. ("Your country's in a pot of trouble, boy!") So is this series.

"Honey West" — Girl Private Eye. Playboy Club Special proving sex can be dirty. James Bond with bosoms.

THE GREAT Society Specials: In addition to "Beverly Hillbillies," Andy Griffith, "Petticoat Junction," "Gomer Pyle," and Jimmie Dean, we have three new cornpone comedies:

"Green Acres" — "Beverly Hillbillies," in reverse; the city folks come to the country. Son of Petticoat Junction; grandson of Beverly Hillbillies. Great-grandson of Chick Sale.

"O.K. Crackerby." Rich rubes trying to crash society and proving money can buy anything. Except laughs.

"Tammy" — "Gidget" with outdoor plumbing.

THE WAR CAN BE FUN CATEGORY is enlivened by four new entries — three of which have canned laughter in case war isn't funny enough:

"Hogan's Heroes" is a prisoner-of-war camp version of "Sergeant Bilko" or "McHale's Navy" in captivity.

"F-Troop" — a western version of The Keystone Cops. The U.S. Cavalry vs. The Indians, circa 1870. The first television series in history where the Indians win.

"Mr. Roberts" — "Mutiny on the Bounty" with laughs.

WAR CAN BE SERIOUS: To the category already well represented by "Combat" (infantry) and "12 O'Clock High" (Air Force) we now have "Convoy" (Navy and Merchant Marine). Salt water and suspense.

HOME LIFE CAN BE FUNNY: To a category already bursting with sink-and-situation comedy provided by Lucy, Hazel, Donna, Patty, Ozzie and Harriet, you can now add:

"Gidget" for the post-diaper, pre-surfing set.

"Mona McClusky" or "Can a Rich, Famous Movie Star Find Happiness and Fulfillment as a Woman on an Air Force Sergeant's Salary?" The answer is No.

HOME IS NOT SO FUNNY: The Long Hot Summer — "Peyton Place" with magnolias.

"The Big Valley: — Family troubles in old Stockton.

IN THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE - GROUP HEALTH BENEFITS CATEGORY, there are three new members:

"Run for Your Life" — a quick sprint to boredom starting a dying drifter trying to make his last days count. He's more ill-at-ease than ill.

"A Man Called Shenandoah" is an amnesiac's search for his identity. Will Shenandoah find his memory before "The Fugitive" finds the one-armed man?

"The Loner" is traveling west after the Civil War. He is light on luggage, friends and humor. Above average — therefore doomed.

CHP Film, One on Sea To Be Shown

A motion picture stressing highway safety will be shown by the California Highway Patrol to boys and girls in the Hammerton Tract area Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wagner, 20520 Raymond.

The film, "A Day with the Highway Patrol," will be presented by Patrolman Alber who will add some hints about roadway safety, including better pedestrian habits.

A second film, "The Restless Sea," has been provided by the M & M Charter Bus Lines and will be shown during the evening, Wagner said.

The session will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Every United States Senator has a glass shaker of black blotting sand on his desk, a custom dating back to the days of quill pens.

YOUTH AWARDS . . . Kathy Kimes and Paul Kaplan, both South High students, have received the South Bay Optimist Club's annual Youth Appreciation awards, according to Dr. John A. Lucas, principal of South High. The awards will be presented tonight at an Optimist Club dinner at the Pen and Quill Restaurant.

Optimist Youth Awards Go to Spartan Seniors

Selection of Kathy Kimes and Paul Kaplan of South High to receive the 1965 Youth Appreciation awards presented by the South Bay Optimist Club was announced today by Dr. John A. Lucas, principal of South High.

The awards, presented annually to a young man and a young woman for outstanding citizenship, will be given to Miss Kimes and Kaplan tonight at a dinner meeting of the Optimist Club. The meeting will be held at the Pen and Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Miss Kimes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kimes of 5110 Paseo de Pablo. She is an honor student and presently serves as chairman of the Order of Athena, High girls service club. Miss Kimes also is a varsity cheerleader and a member of the National Forensic League.

Kaplan is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Kaplan of 111 Monte d'Oro. He is a member of the South High cross country team and vice president of the Spartan Lettermen's Club. Kaplan also serves as chairman of the Order of Apollo, boys' service club, and vice president of both the Latin Club and California Scholarship Federation chapter.

Miss Kimes plans to attend the University of California at Santa Barbara. She will major in social science and plans a career in elementary teaching.

Kaplan hopes to enter Stanford University. He will major in engineering or medicine.

"We have many outstanding citizens at South High," Dr. Lucas said, "and I am certain that Kathy Kimes and Paul Kaplan are excellent representatives of our school."
