

AND THE DICE WAS LOADED

A "Roaring 20s" satire is enacted as Jaycees and Jaycettes get ready for an evening of fun and frolic when they stage their "Las Vegas Night" Friday evening. Caught with a pair of loaded dice by the six-foot Jaycee bouncer John Hardin, hustler Robert Magee "sees the birdie" as Mrs. Douglas Nelson, Jaycette, weeps at the sight. Money made at this gala event will go to the club's philanthropy fund.

Gala Las Vegas Night

Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Jaycettes will present their annual "Roaring 20s and Las Vegas Night" Friday evening, Nov. 19, at the Retail Clerks Hall, 25049 Bellepointe, Harbor City, beginning at 8 p.m.

The grand door prize, for the person winning the most money at the casino tables, will be a three-day, two night trip for two at the Dunes, Riviera or Hacienda Hotels at Las Vegas.

Other prizes will be awarded during the evening. There will be a prize for the best costumes, although costumes are optional.

The price of the ticket includes dancing to an eight piece orchestra, $1,000 in play money, a discount on your favorite pizza at a local pizza house, and the midnight buffet.

The public is invited to join in the evening of fun. Tickets may be secured by calling Ronald David or Mrs. Richard Span.

Funds derived will go to the club's philanthropies.

Southwest Assn. Slates Benefit Holiday Dance

Making last-minute preparations with the anticipation of Thanksgiving holiday sociability foremost in mind are the members and friends of the Southwest Association for Retarded Children, who are holding their second annual benefit dance on Friday, Nov. 19. The dance will be held again this year at the newly-decorated Eagles Hall at 128 South Catalina Avenue in Redondo Beach. The time is 9 p.m.

Proceeds are earmarked for tuitions for needy trainees at the sheltered workshop program which is one of SARC's training services for the mentally retarded.

A portable television set will be given away during the evening as the major door prize. Also special entertainment is planned with outstanding artists performing.

Moving ahead with programming and ticket sales are Ed Day of Manhattan Beach and Mrs. Orville Markles of Hawthorne. Clare Beck, president of the Redondo Beach Eagles, will emcee the dance. "The dance band will offer selections geared to the tastes of all age groups," said Day,

Speech Guild to Hold Open Meeting Nov. 18

Las Silibas, appropriately meaning "The Syllables" in Spanish, is the new name chosen by the one-year-old Guild to the South Bay Speech and Hearing Center.

In an effort to acquaint the public with the program and objectives of the Speech Center, as well as the plans and purpose of Las Silibas, Mrs. Hugh Denny, president of the guild, invites interested persons to attend an informal coffee and dessert meeting on Thursday, Nov. 18, at 8 p.m. at the New Horizons Clubhouse, 22727 Maple Avenue in Torrance. (Between Crenshaw and Hawthorne Blvds., of Sepulveda Blvd.)

The Speech Center, under the direction of Mrs. Carol Klinghoffer, has fulfilled a long standing need in the South Bay area for this particular type of therapy. Las Silibas serves to support the Center and welcomes prospective new members who would find satisfaction in helping them carry on the work of the guild.

Attending the meeting will be representatives from other organizations which have expressed a specific interest in naming the Speech Center as one of their philanthropies. Any other organization which might be interested in more information of this nature is also invited to send representatives.

Warm Lenk New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lenk, who recently moved into their new home at 2604 W. 233rd St., were honored at a surprise housewarming last Saturday evening given by Mrs. Lenk's bridge club members and their husbands.

The group enjoyed a potluck dinner and the honor guests were presented with a gift for their new home. Bridge was played with the high scores held by Mrs. William Starr and Mrs. Jack Dean.

Attending the party with the Lenks were Messrs. and Mmes. Jack Rice, William Starr, Chalmers Strayer, Howard Walker, Frank Barnes, Jack Phillips and Jack Dean.

Song Writers Club Slates Musicale

The "Thanksgiving" theme will be carried out in the program at the meeting of the Vel-De-Nez Song Writers meeting on Saturday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. at 1260 Broad St., American Legion Hall, Wilmington.

Refreshments will be served at 7 p.m. followed by the program. Special entertainment will be featured by Bill Hiatt Jr., television and radio personality.

Others performing will be Vicki Morrison and Pamela Underdow, Martha Humphries, Shirley de Dubovay, Bob Lillies, and Twilight Ramblers Band. Vivente Albiel will present his students from the Los Angeles Harbor Area Community Teenage Center.

There will also be door prizes.

Attends Grand Guardian Meet
