Thanks-for-Giving Month Celebrated at Goodwill

Thanksgiving means Pilgrims, turkey, holiday church, football games, family reunions, discarded-but-still good clothing, repairable household articles, jobs, training, and self-respect.

This unusual enumeration of blessings at Thanksgiving is offered by the Goodwill Industries of Long Beach, which serves all of the Southwest area. The extra items have been added as a part of the "Thanks-for-Giving" project which Goodwill conducts throughout November.

Goodwill Industries wants each community to know the handicapped workers are grateful for the support of their program, Walter L. Case, Goodwill's executive vice president, said.

"Each week more than 200 people receive pay checks at Goodwill, most of whom would otherwise require some sort of public assistance," Case said.

Case said he hopes the programs planned for "Thanks-for-Giving" month also will serve to show the many values from donations to Goodwill, including the job training, work experience, and pay checks, as well as the inexpensive items for resale.
