

OBITUARIES

Scott J. Skiver

Funeral services for Scott Justin Skiver, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Skiver of 4710 Carson St., were held Monday at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. Interment was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

The youth died Friday as a result of injuries sustained when he was struck by a car near his home. He would have been 5 years old next Sunday.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a sister, Jennifer; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Skiver of Elk Mountain, Wyo., and his grandmother, Mrs. A. S. Mayer of Crowley, La.

Halverson - Leavell Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Panfiloff

Funeral services for Mrs. Felk Averianovna Panfiloff were held this morning in the Russian Orthodox Church in San Diego. Mrs. Panfiloff died Sunday.

Mrs. Panfiloff was born Oct. 7, 1878, in Russia. She is survived by three daughters, Tania Grobosky of Torrance and Luba Wallace and Antonia Carrick of San Diego.

Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery in San Diego.

Theresa Carlos

Requiem mass for Theresa Ann Carlos, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claro Carlos of 1448 W. 225th St., was celebrated yesterday at Nativity Catholic Church. Rosary was said Monday evening at the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel.

The little girl died Saturday at a Los Angeles hospital. She was born Feb. 27, 1960, and had lived in Torrance all her life.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by a sister.

Magazine readers often exceed population growth. While the U. S. population increased 44.1 per cent since 1938, general magazines increased 340 per cent in circulation, outdoor magazines gained 393 per cent, leisure magazines, 336.5 per cent.

Juanita Holdbrook, four brothers, Richard, David, Danny, and Edward, and by her grandmother, Mrs. Concepcion Espinoza.

Frederic Ewens

Funeral services were scheduled today for Dr. Frederic Ewens, prominent physician who maintained a general practice in Manhattan Beach. Dr. Ewens, 71, had been a physician for 45 years, completing his training at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia and at Queen's Hospital in Honolulu.

He was a former chief of staff at Torrance Memorial Hospital, and was active in the campaign which established South Bay Hospital.

Today's services were scheduled for 2 p.m. at Grace Chapel at Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Torrance High Club Seeks Toys for Tots

The Torrance High School chapter of Future Teachers of America this week launches a drive to collect books for children as part of the holiday Toys for Tots campaign.

Twenty-three members of the club will play Santa's helpers through Dec. 17 as they canvass the central Torrance area seeking "used but useable" children's story books to donate to children's wards of local hospitals.

Persons who wish to contribute are asked to call 320-2383 or to deliver books to the school at 2200 Carson St.

An academic service group, whose members have evidenced interest in teaching as a career, Future Teachers is chartered by the Torrance education Association and is an affiliate of the California Teachers' Association and the National Education Association. Faculty sponsor is James Armstrong.
